

MIDEAST ACCORD

expected to return to the Middle East to resume his "shuttle diplomacy" between Jerusalem and Cairo.

In a communique issued at the close of the meeting between Rabin and Echeverria, the two leaders said they shared the belief that it was indispensable that all nations intensify their efforts to bring about an era of justice in the world. "The time is now opportune for an immediate peace settlement between Israel and her neighbors," the communique said.

Meanwhile, Former Defense Minister Moshe Dayan has again criticized Kissinger's efforts for an interim agreement saying that the step-by-step approach involves withdrawing from territory in exchange for a temporary cooling off period. He said that unless an agreement is reached simultaneously with Egypt, Syria and the Soviet Union, Israel should remain where she is.

SADAT: H.K. RESTORED EGYPT'S CONFIDENCE

NEW YORK, (WUP) "The face of America used to be very ugly, but Dr. Kissinger's honest work has restored the confidence of those like us who had lost all confidence in America."

Thus President Anwar el-Sadat praised his "brother" helper in a statement made to reporters last week, according to a Reuters dispatch from Alexandria.

Sadat was further quoted as having stated that Kissinger "is a man of honesty and
