

NEW BOLD U.S. POSTURE AT U.N. BRITISH DAILIES WARN PLO TO STAY AWAY

(By David Horowitz)

UNITED NATIONS (WUP)--- The United States has taken on a new bold posture here at the UN versus the "tyranny of the majority."

The American veto in the Security Council with regard to South and North Vietnam membership augurs a new era for Washington's policy & actions in the 15-MEMBER Council and no doubt, in the forth coming session of the General Assembly.

For the first time in many years, the U.S. has demonstrated that it will use its clout against partisan political "selectivity" in admitting new members & thus served notice through Ambassador Moynihan's forthright statements that it means to take the offensive, within the rights and powers granted it by the Charter and the rules of procedure.

The dynamic new Amer. Ambassador, made it crystal-clear to the Council that the United States "will have nothing to do with selective universality, a principle which in practice admits only new members acceptable to the totalitarian States."

If this principle is adhered to--and there can be no doubt that it will be--it could possibly mean that no further new members will be admitted to the UN unless the South Korean membership is simultaneously placed on the agenda and voted upon favorably.

It seems to this writer that the U.S. has finally come to realize that it must assert itself vigorously and defend, at all costs, its own principles and make it known emphatically.

The Special session of the UN, which opens on Sept. 1 and the regular General Assembly opening on Sept. 16 immediately thereafter are now on notice that they will play dangerously with the UN interests if attempts are made to engage in a real "tyranny of the majority."

To be sure, Israel's interests are bound to be better served by a U.S. that is willing to stand up and be counted in the General Assembly and make known its positions.

UNITED NATIONS, (WUP)---Two leading British dailies, The Sun and The Daily Express, have strongly criticized an invitation to delegates of the PLO to attend the Inter-Parliamentary Union Conference to be held in London early next month, according to a United Kingdom Mission press digest released here this week.

The Sun, under the headline, "Keep Them Out," says:

"These terrorists have been invited as observers. Mr. Roy Jenkins, the Home Secretary, should tell them to stay out. Of course, the disgraceful hearing given by the UN to PLO boss Yasir Arafat may have given his murderous gang a veneer of respectability in some eyes. The Inter-Parliamentary Union ought to be more grown up. The PLO politics have about as much to do with Parliament as the IRA or Guy Fawkes."

The Express recalls that 100 British m.p.s. have gone on record as opposing the invitation to the political wing of the Palestine guerrillas.
