

CLARIFICATIONS NECESSARY FOR AGREEMENT

WASHINGTON (WNS) — Optimism about the chances for a second stage interim agreement between Israel and Egypt in the Sinai continued to grow here and in Jerusalem. In Jerusalem many observers expected that Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger should be arriving soon to resume his shuttle diplomacy between Jerusalem and Cairo in an effort to complete the final details for an accord. However, Israel is asking for further clarifications from Washington on Egypt's latest reply to Israel's proposals.

Meanwhile, Kissinger said that Congress will have to approve the U.S. sending American technicians to man the Sinai electronic warning stations, a key element in the agreement. The State Dept. said that Congress is being kept informed of all the elements of the agreement.

Meanwhile two Israeli teams are in Washington to hold meetings with State Dept. officials led by Under-Secy. Joseph Sisco. One Israel team, a joint-Defense Finance ministries delegation, is discussing Israel's requests for economic and military aid from the U.S. The other team, made up of Mordechai Gazit, director general of the Prime Minister's office, and Meir Rosenne, legal advisor to the Foreign Ministry, is believed to be working on the legal and political aspects of the Israeli-Egyptian agr-reement. Informed sources here indicated that the military aspects of the Sinai agreement have been completed although the formal language still has to be worked out. Israel will retreat east of the Mitle and Gidi passes and give up the Abu Rodeis airfields.

In Israel, Premier Yitzhak Rabin told settlers in the Negev that the agreement when completed will allow Israel to test whether Egypt wants peace or not. He revealed that the agreement would put Egypt 25 to 30 miles east of the Suez Canal while Israel would be 155 miles west of her pre-1967 Six day War borders. Rabin stressed that Israel would be so positioned in relation to the oilfields that it would not be worthwhile for Egypt to break the agreement.
