Look out, Las Vegas, here comes Klinger! JAMIE FARR, the far out G.I. on M*A*S*H, who wants out of the Army so badly, is prepping an act for Vegas. Young composer/arranger/conductor NORM MAMEY has been set to create the act. Two highlights will be "Hallelujah, Nostalgia" in which Jamie will sing 40 old songs in 8 minutes and a Klinger-type strip to the "Stripper."

REX HARRISON has been signed for what might become the most expensive commercial in TV history. They have rented the gorgeous black, white and grey costumes from the "My Fair Lady" Ascot number and will recreate the scene with the end of the race bringing forth the 1976 Dodge. Now that's class.

Wild rumor going around town that CARY GRANT and MAUREEN DONALDSON had split and that he was going with an un-named French actress. I called Maureen and she said, "If he's going with a French actress, I'd like to know when he has the time. I have no French accent and I'm certainly not an actress but I AM with him all the time."

LOIS NETTLETON spent her birthday judging the Miss Nisei contest as a ball kicking off Nisei Week. Fellow judges were DAN ROWAN, JOE CAMPANELLA & JAMES SHIGETA. Following the judging, a huge birthday cake was brought out and 600 people joined FREDDIE MARTIN and his orchestra in singing "Happy Birthday" to the lovely Lois. She was thrill-

As to the reported romance with Dan Rowan, Lois said, "We are very good friends and although we see each other frequently, we both date other people so there's nothing really serious right now."

DICK SHEPPARD, author "Elizabeth, the life and career of ELIZABETH TAYLOR," has just signed a contract with Doubleday to write "NEWMAN & WOODWARD," the lives and careers of PAUL & JOANNE. They are hoping to match the success of "GABLE & LOMBARD" and "BOGART & BACALL." Please note that in this day of women's lib, the ladies are getting second billing.

One of TV's most popular actresses has fallen in love with her leading man in a recent movie for television, and vice versa. There are problems. She has been going with another actor for sometime and he is married. BOTH have tried to cool their feelings even to the point of not speaking to each other off the set but the electricity is anything but cool. WIFE and BOYFRIEND are both painfully aware of the situation and are hoping to emerge victorious. So far, the couple have not consummated their affair so prospects are bright. Keep tuned.

ALANA HAMILTON was running around like the proverbial chicken with its head cut off when I called her last week. JUNE ALLYSON had cancelled her Chicago legit engagement and GEORGE & ALANA were given an emergency call to do "Round One" with only one week's rehearsal. They hadn't planned on doing this brand new play until fall. So Alana had to get ready the baby, the maid, the nurse and the dog in record time.

Those crazy oil people! The Shah of Iran now wants to buy PEARL BAILEY & BILLY DANIELS and the whole case of "Hello, Dolly" and ship them to Iran for a tour. He saw the show back East and loves it and thinks it would be a smash there. I just hope he doesn't change the name to "Hello, Shady."

On that note, I'd better say goodby, readers.

The Clark County School District will have a symphony orchestra for high school students this year. Rehearsals and instruction will be held every Tuesday and Thursday, 3:30 - 6:00 p.m., in the band room of Las Vegas High as a part of the Sunset High program. Auditions will be held at 3:30 p.m. Tuesday, September 2, for violin, viola, cello, and bass and at the same time Thursday, September 4, for brass, woodwinds and percussion.

West Coast Experimental Theatre is presenting "Waiting for Godot" August 29 and 30 at UNLV Little Theatre.
