TOTIE FIELDS, LESLIE UGGAMS AT SAHARA

The Queen of Comedy, Totie Fields, and singing star Leslie Uggams are sharing the stage at Del Webb's Sahara in an all-femme spectacular coupling.

The hottest female comedy star of the 70's, Miss Fields is nothing short of hilarious as she works in the same spontaneous style which has won her a legion of fans over the years. A hard-working and thorough entertainer, Miss Fields mixes her material well and paces herself with perfection as she jumps from mood to mood, situation to situation, with polished precision. Miss Uggams, a talented and versatile recording and nightclub artist for years, makes her Hotel Sahara debut in this engagement.

Rounding out the Sahara entertainment lineup are the nude revue, Pinups, Sidro's Armada and Joe Vinito in the Casbar Theatre Lounge and Gabe Kila & The Nanakuli Sons in Don the Beachcomber. Miss Fields and Miss Uggams will appear at the Sahara through September 3. Buddy Hackett and Dick Jensen follow.

HAPPY HOLIDAYS.....DEBBIE REYNOLDS is at the Desert Inn with her big holiday revue that everybody wants to see at least once!! The indestructible, unsinkable, and remarkable star - now celebrating her 28th year in show business - is singing, dancing, clowning, and captivating SRO crowds at every show. Featured singer-dancer FRANK DE SAL not only gets to partner Debbie in the show's "Salute to Broadway", Frank also has his first solo spot in the show "Magic To Do" (from the Broadway hit, "Pippin"). Debbie's "opening act" is Debbie out in the audience, climbing the Crystal Room booth, posing for pictures, meeting her fans, and gossiping merrily about her career, kids, marriages, her show, etc. etc. Is DEBBIE REYNOLDS everything you thought your favorite MGM musical movie star would be?? Indeed she is, and so much more. Debbie's hilarious ad libs nightly make every show a special show for that audience!!.....MISS PEGGY LEE, the supreme songstress of American music for the past several decades, is at the Flamingo Hotel in a special (thru Sept. 3) engagement. Only Peggy Lee could make musical magic from a Medieval tapestry (as in her new "Tango") or wring the bittersweet disappointment from "Is That All There Is?", and set a pulsating rhythm for "Fever", "I Am Woman", "Manana", and a dozen or so brand new songs from her upcoming A&M album. A very special artist!!.....TOM JONES is back at Caesars Palace; the last stop of his current American tour. Few of the ladies will need much coaxing to flock to Caesars to see the sexy Welshman in all his live libido; and Tom's male fans will enjoy the ever powerful way he has with a song and his typically wry and witty comments as he observes the pandemonium and panting he causes in the audience.....TOTIE FIELDS returns for a quickie date at the Sahara with a new special gueststar LESLIE UGGAMS. Totie, the earthy and riotous queen of comedy, and the gorgeous, versatile Leslie (with her "At the Cotton Club" revue) keep the Sahara Congo Room vibrating and rocking with music and comedy thru Sept. 3.....Everything you've heard via the Strip grapevine about how sensational NEIL SEDAKA is, in his first Las Vegas appearance in several years, is more than true. Sedaka is "hot" and getting hotter with each new song he pens (for himself or other singers), and with each performance at the Riviera Versailles Room where he is costarring with longtime favorites THE CARPENTERS. Neil's newest composition "I Miss the "Hungry Years" is destined for instant gold before joining the standard repertoire of entertainers who've made songs like "My Way", "This Is My Life", "For Once in My Life" and "I've Got to Be Me" a part of musical history as well as their own personal philosophies.....

ROUND TOWN.....Popular Variety and Review Journal columnist and KORK TV & Radio personality FORREST DUKE is now the Host of the new BACKSTAGE ROOM at the Union Plaza Hotel. Forrest is inviting all of his show biz pals to drop by for dinner, cocktails and late, late breakfasts. ....
