

Herzl's Dream

NEW YORK (WUP) -- Theodor Herzl, at the age of thirteen, experienced an unusual dream in which he was told of his future mission in life for the Jewish people.

This fact is brought to light in Alex Bein's biography of Herzl published in 1946 by the then American Zionist Emergency Council as a prelude to The Jewish State.

Author Bein wrote:

"About the age of 12 he read in a German book about the Messiah-King whom many Jews still awaited and who would come riding, like the poorest of the poor on an ass. The history of the Exodus and the legend of the liberation by the King Messiah ran together in the boy's mind, inspiring in him the theme of a wonderful story which he sought in vain to put into literary form.

"A little while thereafter Herzl had the following dream:

"The King-Messiah came, a glorious and majestic old man, took me in his arms, and swept off with me on the wings of the wind. On one of the iridescent clouds we encountered the figure of Moses. The features were those familiar to me out of my childhood in the statue by Michelangelo. The Messiah called Moses: It is for this child that I have prayed. But to me he said: Go, declare to the Jews that I shall come soon and perform great wonders and great deeds for my people and for the whole world."

Theodor Herzl did indeed "declare to the Jews" the ideal of the Jewish State and the "great wonders" came with the fulfillment of this ideal in the Zionist movement and the rise of Israel as a sovereign state.

NEW YORK! Yeshiva University has instituted a broad range of academic and cultural programs which are focusing on the special needs and problems of the Jewish aged.
