Get well wishes to Larry Harmell as well as Etta's sister who, too, is ill and both in different hospitals.

For those parents who had children attending services over the holidays, I wonder if you feel the same as I do. I had my granddaughter, Jessica, attend the Rosh A Shona Services. They were so exhilarating that I stayed the entire time, and have to congratulate the teachers and helpers as they made the services interesting, informative and enjoyable. I learned some things I did not even know. One question "Why are Challahs baked round for this holiday?" Wonder how many of you can answer that? Ask your children.

Susan Greenspun Fine had a delightful birthday. Her husband, Mark, surprised her by inviting many friends to a bash in one of the Las Vegas restaurants. To say Susan was surprised is putting it mildly. She was overcome with joy at the thoughtfulness of Mark and seeing her dear friends. Many more such happy birthdays, Susan.

Assistant Fire Marshall George Judd reminds us that Fire Prevention Week is October 5 to 11, and the slogan this year is "Learn Not to Burn." He offers seven safety precautions:

1. Smoke in a chair, not in bed.
2. Don't overload electrical outlets.
3. Keep combustibles away from heated surfaces (portable heaters, stoves, etc.)
4. Place lighters and matches out of reach of children.
5. Use large ash trays.
6. Plan two escapes, in event of fire.
7. Buy an approved smoke detector and install it outside your sleeping area.

BONNIE TELL'S

ALL ABOUT
U.S.Y.

We had a membership drive last Sunday for Junior United Synagogue Youth and it turned out exceptionally well.

Twelve new members showed up who really seemed interested in U.S.Y. We swam and ate pizza. We also had our first meeting with new members. If you missed the drive, come to our next Junior U.S.Y. meeting, Monday, September 29 (which happens to be my grandfather, Jack Tell's birthday). The meeting is from 8 to 9 p.m. at Temple Beth Sholom.

In a couple of weeks (you will be notified by me in this column) a Kadima U.S.Y. for fifth and sixth graders will be started at the Temple. Kadima introduces those kids to everything you have to know about Jr. U.S.Y. and nothing will have to be explained to them.

The Youth Commission of Beth Sholom determined that Kadima would be for fifth and sixth graders, Jr. U.S.Y. for seventh and eighth graders and Senior U.S.Y. for ninth to twelfth graders.

So find out about the U.S.Y. in your city, and join, and have the time of your life.

Happy Succoth.
