SHOW EAST

WHAT'S NEW?.....CHICAGO JOE'S is the new "find" in dining round town. The menu is Italian ("home cookin" style) at "The Little Red House" located just off Charleston Blvd. at Fourth Street and the host ("CHICAGO JOE" himself) and head waiter MIKE NAVILIO turn themselves around to give the friendliest and fastest service with a much missed personalized atmosphere. You won't even feel like you're in a restaurant it's more like dropping by to visit old friends for a big Italian dinner in a charmingly intimate dining room.....AL & BONNIE LEVINSON'S "OLD NEVADA" at Bonnie Springs Ranch (near Red Rock - about twenty-five minutes straight out Charleston Blvd. west) is growing with old stores, saloons, craft shops, restaurants, horse back riding, etc., etc. The Levinsons' have also added an Old West Wax Museum, a dance hall with old time vaudeville shows, and a team of actor-stuntmen for Old Nevada's free-for-all brawls, gunfights, and western action scenes.....MODIGLIANI'S is petite, elegant and an ultra-French boufe for fine food and cocktails. Less than a month old, Modigliani's is located just off Paradise Road (near Harmon) in the Dance World shopping center (opposite The Jungle Club).....The STARDUST RACE BOOK, the first on the Strip, offers all sports and track betting..... GINA'S MEXICAN IMPORTS in the Mini-Mall Shopping Center (across from the Stardust) has all the hard to find and hard to get imports from South of the Border including beautiful leather goods and clothing, silver, turquoise, and Mexican artcrafts in onyx, alabaster, coral, etc.....

STRIP SHOWSTOPPERS.....MEL TORME back at the Sands with RICH LITTLE, has still another "new show". Torme is one of the handful of singers who cares enough to make every Strip visit a "special engagement" and always comes back with something new and something Torme.....STEVE & EYDIE (Lawrence & Gorme) dashed in to replace ailing Sammy Davis Jr. at Caesars Palace thru October 8. For Strip showgoers Steve & Eydie are an unexpected bonus - they usually limit their Vegas outings to just two or three a year. In a word, DON'T MISS THEM. Steve and Eydie give a new meaning to the phrase "good music" - they're just the Best. Also upcoming for the popular team is their new CBS special "OUR LOVE IS HERE TO STAY" with a special guest star GENE KELLY, airing Thanksgiving Day.....PAUL ANKA, another of the Caesars legion of stars, was all set to make his first appearance in New York in more than ten years when the musician's strike hit Broadway. Paul's opening at the Winter Garden has been postponed pending settlement of the strike - the entire ten day engagement was a big charity gala with a different charity group benefitting from each evening.....ANN-MARGRET opening next month at the Las Vegas Hilton has been set to be the Christmas-New Year's attraction at that hotel. Also working-holidaying in Vegas will be PAUL ANKA at Caesars, BOBBIE GENTRY at the Desert Inn, ROY CLARK at the Frontier, and WAYNE NEWTON at the Sands.....OLIVIA NEWTON-JOHN in her "headliner" debut at the Riviera with special gueststars THE HUDSON BROTHERS.....Academy Award winner JACK ALBERTSON (star of tv's "Chico and the Man") in his Strip bow as a song and dance man now at the MGM Grand Celebrity Room with SHECKY GREENE.....

TENNESSEE (OL' ERN) ERNIE FORD, WHOSE RELIGIOUS RECORDS TOPPED 15 MILLION AND HIS "16 TONS" WAS NO. 1, BRINGS HIS REVUE, FEATURING LIFE, TO THE SAHARA CONGO ROOM UNTIL OCTOBER 8.

ROUND TOWN.....The annual BEAUX ART
