SAUDI ARABIA WANTS JERUSALEM

UNITED NATIONS (WUP) -- "Any attempt at a settlement that does not lead to the liberation of Jerusalem and the removal of the consequences of aggression from the Holy City and its holy places, and its return to its rightful owners, the Arab inhabitants, is totally unacceptable." Thus the Foreign Minister of Saudi Arabia, Prince Saud al Faisal, declared in his address before the General Assembly last week.

Completely omitting any rights of the Jewish people in the capital of Israel, he was emphatic in expressing the view of his Government that "Jerusalem and its holy places have a special significance in the heart and mind of every Arab, every Moslem and, indeed, every believer in God. If it is not liberated," he insisted, "no Arab or Moslem can be at peace with himself and his conscience, let alone at peace with others. The return of Jerusalem to Arab sovereignty is the best guarantee for peoples of all faiths, safeguarding their freedom of worship and preserving the sanctity of their holy places..."

FOR ARABS

(As the Prince uttered these words, surely many who heard him recalled the nineteen years of Jordanian rule when no Jew was allowed to worship at the Wailing Wall and during which period Jewish holy sites were desecrated. (WUP editor).
