

ENTERTAINMENT TRIP AROUND THE WORLD

What started out to be a glamorous fun filled old fashioned movie premiere almost turned into disaster last week when "The Hiding Place" opened at the Beverly Theater in Beverly Hills. Some very stupid people (reportedly the Nazi party) set off a tear gas bomb as the celebs and the press poured into the theatre to view this film.

"The Hiding Place," in case you didn't know is about Corrie ten Broom, the only member of her family to survive a concentration camp. It seems incredible to think that in this day and age someone would still want to suppress stories like this but believe me it's true. I was there and I still can't believe it. As Corrie said, "This is only a minute sampling of the kind of suppression that went during those war years." As we milled out of the theatre to escape the fumes, BILLY GRAHAM and PAT BOONE led the people outside in singing hymns and Jewish songs to prove to these fools that they could not disrupt the evening. It was quite a sight to see hundreds of people dressed in lovely gowns or tuxedos singing along with Graham and Boone. Unfortunately they could not rid the theater of the fumes so we missed seeing the film but I will be seeing it this week and will write it up. DALE EVANS with ROY ROGERS, told me that she had seen the film three times and that it was a wonderful, moving film. Other celebs appalled by the attack but still determined to wait it out were VIRGINIA MAYO, JACK & VICKIE OAKIE, DON DE FORE, RALPH EDWARDS, JOHN GAVIN, JULIE HARRIS & ARTHUR O'CONNELL (two stars in the film), SAM & BETTYE JAFFE, SHIRLEY JONES & MARTY INGELS, JUNE ALLYSON & JON PETERSON, ROSEMARIE, ETHEL WATERS, JANE WITHERS plus a group of religious leaders from all sects. An impressive group gathered to see an impressive movie made all the more impressive by their faith. I hope it proved something to those rabble rousers who thought they were getting away with something that night.

JOAN FONTAINE, here to do a special two-parter on "Cannon" dropped by to meet the members of the cast a day early. She arrived on location in a white Rolls Royce with a chauffeur and was wearing a white linen suit with a hat and a white parasol. She dazzled the crew and cast and I sincerely hope that some of them picked up on the meaning of the word star and the privilege of meeting a lady. Brava Joan! We can certainly use some old time glamour in this town.

AIP, long considered the Columbia Pictures of New Hollywood is doing exactly what Columbia did in the old days. They have made a bundle on "B" pictures (some of which have grossed millions) and are now making their major move. VINCENTE MINNELLI will direct LIZA, INGRID BERGMAN & CHARLES BOYER in "Carmela." Hall, AIP!

GEORGE BURNS has been named the 1975 "Star of Tomorrow" by the National Association of Theater Owners for his role in MGM's "The Sunshine Boys." Burns hasn't made a movie in 36 years (last film was "Honolulu" in 1939) and has never played anyone other than himself in his other films. Next January 20, George will turn 80. Life does begin at 80 for some people!

For others, it begins each morning so do have a good week.

A Garden Seminar will be conducted for the beginner as well as the advanced gardener and will be held October 21 at 1:30 p.m. at the Co-operative Extension Office located in the S.T.&P. Building, Suite 207, Commercial Center, 953 E. Sahara.
