DICK MCINNES

Tripping around..... If you've ever wondered why QUINN MARTIN manages to get the holdouts to do his TV series (KARL MALDEN for example) it's the way he treats them. He made up his mind to get PAUL SORVINO for a spinoff from "Streets of San Francisco" called "Superstar." Sorvino wasn't really interested until Martin began his campaign. His contract for the series if it sells is a house in San Francisco for his family (wife and three kids), 5 round trip tickets to New York 5 times a year, $20,000 a week and a few other goodies. No wonder he signed. "Superstar" by the way sounds quite interesting. Sorvino plays a N.Y. cop who comes out to San Francisco on his own to capture the crook and decides to stay. His character is not the usual cop character. Casting has begun on "Helter Skelter" based on the best selling novel with a unique touch. There are no scripts available and no breakdowns. Everyone at Warner Brothers is a little up tight about the film and top security precautions are being taken even though the picture doesn't start shooting until the end of the month. Some actors are even turning the roles down sight unseen. Everyone is more than afraid that the Manson family might hit on them. That is really a shame that those people can still put that much fear into people.

SUSAN ST. JAMES is so angry at the sale of dead sharks in the Universal tour Center as souvenirs that she has told the powers that be that she will walk from "McMillan and Wife" if it isn't stopped pronto.

NANCY WALKER has to drop out of both "McMillan" and "Rhoda" by the end of this season so she can start her own series for ABC. Rumors have it that VIVIAN VANCE will make a return to tube playing Rhoda's neighbor to help ease the loss of the dynamic little Nancy.

TONY ORLANDO has been set to do his first guest appearance on a situation comedy in "Chico and the Man." Chico will meet a girl who is not impressed with him because her boyfriend looks just like him and it is Tony. They do look alike, don't they?

If you want a preview of BARBARA EDEN's new act for the MGM on November 19, take a peek at an Eden TV doubleheader on October 29. She'll be on "Dinah" in the afternoon and "Tony Orlando and Dawn" in the PM doing bits and pieces from her act.

DIANA TRASK's new single "Cry" has an interesting history. Seems that it is not exactly new. The red haired Country Woman recorded it a few years back but DJ's all over the country have put in so many requests for a single that she had to oblige. "Cry" for those who don't know is the big JOHNNIE RAY hit of yesteryear. Bet you that Trask makes it a big hit again.

The HAGER TWINS may be making a move from "Hee Haw" if plans go through for their own series. It's called "Gemini" and it's about two private eyes, twins of course and it could be a winner or so the astrological charts say.

IT HAD TO HAPPEN DEPT: AIP announces that it will produce "Claws," the story of a huge killer grizzly bear on the attack. What a grisly subject! Ouch! Have a strong week!
