One of the finest citizens in Las Vegas is Andy Maris (Mangeris), who is a good friend of THE ISRAELITE. When Andy's son, John, was a murder victim last year the entire community shared in the bereavement. Now that the culprit has been convicted of the crime and duly sentenced, Andy is requesting Sheriff Lamb honor Detective Chuck Lee with a commendation "for a job superbly done, for his untiring dedication, compassion, patience and steadfast tenacity in tracking down and apprehending the murderer."

"Detective Lee's efforts should not go unheralded," states Andy, and the Las Vegas ISRAELITE agrees. (J.T.)

BONNIE TELL'S
ALL ABOUT
U.S.Y.

Hi, everyone. This week I have our exciting fall calendar. This should remove any doubt, if you have any, about joining Junior United Synagogue Youth.

You know we had the sleepover and the bake sale takes place on October 26, 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. on the lawn in front of Temple Beth Sholom.

On November 22, we will have our Chanukah party in the Kolod Recreation Center. About this time we will be selling Chanukah Kits, loaded with all the Holiday favorites such as Menorahs, dreidles, Chanukah gelt and lots more. They make outstanding Chanukah presents.

On December 8th we will have the annual Jr. U.S.Y. talent show along with independent acts and the grand finale "A Comedy U.S.Y."

We are glad the Senior U.S.Y. had a pretty fair turn-out for their magic show.

Our next Junior U.S.Y. meeting will be on Monday, October 27 at the Temple, and I look forward to seeing you, and you, and especially you.

GREG GOUSSAK'S

IN LAS VEGAS

Shalom.

This is Greg Goussak with this week's column. All 3 chapters have been really active in the past week with events. I will once again re-cap what has happened in the past week and what will happen in the future, but first I want to express the way I feel toward membership in this town. There are so many Jewish teenagers in this town who are running around yelling "WHAT CAN I DO, I'M LOST AND BORED WITH NOTHING TO DO," well let me tell you, AZA or BBG is for YOU!!! Just re-read my past columns and see what we have done and what we are doing. Just come down on Wednesday night and find out what kind of fun and enjoyment you can have.

In the past week Jack Entratter AZA held its car wash which I have been advertising the last 3 weeks. It was the most successful event of the year so far. We took in about $90.00 after expenses. I would like to thank the Nat Mack B'nai B'rith Men's Lodge for their support of this event, and also everyone else who bought a ticket or had their car washed last Sunday morning.

Las Vegas AZA and BBG have been really taking advantage of the past 3 day weekend. They went to a drive-in movie, went to the Rathskeller and more. Programming has been up for all chapters and I think it will stay up at least through the end of this year.

Things coming up are:
Entratter AZA is having a surprise this Sunday, which cannot be released at this time.

Las Vegas AZA and BBG will be holding drive-in movie events as Entratter will. There will be dances, parties and more fun.

And going back to fundraisers the fashion show BBG had last August brought in over $1,400 for the girls.

Shalom.
