

EDDY ARNOLD, GEORGE GOBEL AT SAHARA

Country music superstar Eddy Arnold and his comedian sidekick Lonesome George Gobel are back at Del Webb's Hotel Sahara for a repeat of their standing-room-only spring engagement. The duo will appear twice nightly through November 5.

Arnold has been making and breaking records for more than 20 years and is currently listed among the top four recording artists of all time. His total record sales recently exceeded the 70,000,000 mark.

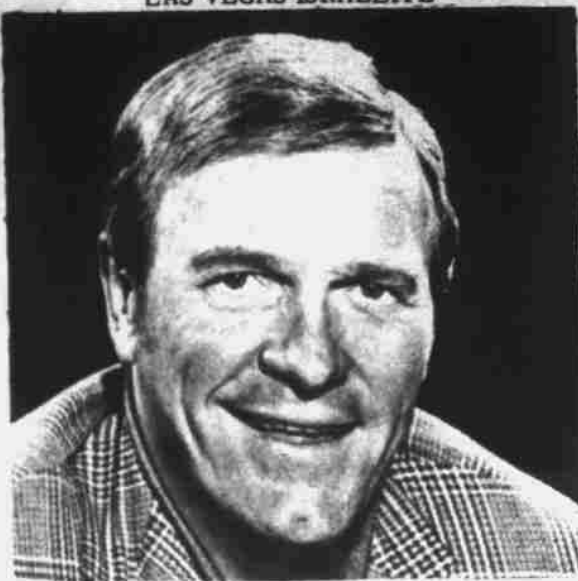

In 1966, he was elected to the Country Music Hall of Fame, a fitting tribute to the man who has personally brought country music to millions of people all over the world. The following year, he was named "Entertainer of the Year" by the Country Music Association.

Eddy refers to himself as "a Heinz 57 singer -- I sing many different kinds of songs which mean something to many different kinds of people." Whatever the mixture, Eddy's songs have his warm and mellow voice as a permanent ingredient.

Some of Eddy's memorable hits include "Boquet of Roses," "Cattle Call," "Make the World Go Away," "That's How Much I Love You," "Lonely Again," "Misty Blue" and "Turn the World Around the Other Way." He co-authored two favorites, "You Don't Know Me" and "Just a Little Lovin'."

If Eddy's singing and performance have become more cosmopolitan, more traditionally "pop," they have, nevertheless, retained the down-to-earth quality of the Country genre. The music, like the man, is a rare synthesis of the rural and the urban, the folksy and the sophisticated. It is, perhaps, this combination, which accounts for Eddy's enormous universal appeal, both as a performer and as a human being. Rounding out the Sahara entertainment line-up are the nude revue, Pinups, and Little Anthony's Imperials in the Casbar Theatre Lounge and singer Terry James in the world-famous Don the Beachcomber Restaurant.

B B WOMEN'S GIN RUMMY TOURNEY

BY HELEN MYERS

The Gin Rummy Tournament so popular a few years ago has been renewed by B'nai B'rith Women for the benefit of their philanthropies and projects. The event is to be held Sunday, November 2nd at 6 P.M. at Temple Beth Shalom.

The tournament is under the direction of Max Goot and Jerry Herzberg, well-known for their expert and enthusiastic conduct of Gin tournaments. The evening is chaired by Evelyn Goot assisted by Sara Agron, Bess Schwartz, Etta Harmell, Helen Myers, Shirley Feldman and the membership of the Las Vegas chapter.

The public is invited to participate and try for the large cash prize offered for first place as well as second, third, and fourth place money. Various games have been arranged for those not continuing after the first round.

The admission price includes dinner, beverages and door prizes in addition to the entry in the tournament. Tickets will be available at the door but should be purchased in advance. They are available at Jackie's Deli in Commercial Center and from members. For tickets or information call Sara-735-4711, Evelyn-735-7698, Helen-870,6773.
