TOTIE FIELDS RETURNS TO SAHARA

The Queen of Comedy, Totie Fields, is back at Del Webb's Hotel Sahara for another side-splitting engagement.

Joining Miss Fields for her final Vegas stint of the year is handsome "Tattle-tales" host Bert Convy, who received rave reviews in his debut Las Vegas outing with Miss Fields earlier this year.

The hottest female comedy star of the '70's, Miss Fields is nothing short of hilarious as she works in the free-form style which has won her a legion of fans over the years. A hardworking and thorough entertainer, Miss Fields mixes her material well and paces herself with perfection as she jumps from mood to mood, situation to situation, with polished precision. Convy was a sensation in his Spring debut at the Sahara and is even better this time in. A great singer (he starred in the original cast version of the longest-running musical show in Broadway history -- "Fiddler on the Roof"), Convy also displays a delightful and dynamic stage personality. He bursts onstage with style and keeps things jumping throughout his show.

Rounding out a great Sahara entertainment line-up are the nude revue, Pin-ups, '60's recording stars The Diamonds and the belly-dancing revue Holiday in Greece in the Casbar Theatre Lounge and the world-famous Arthur Lyman Show in Don the Beachcomber.

Miss Fields and Convy will headline at the Sahara through November 19. Buddy Hackett follows.
