

TOON WARNS SYRIA ABOUT LEBANON INTERVENTION

HAIFA (WNS) -- Israel was cautioned against intervening in the civil strife in Lebanon by American Ambassador Malcolm Toon.

But, Toon in an address here, said that should Syria or any other outside force intervene a new situation would be created.

Meanwhile, it was learned in Washington, that the United States has advised several countries -- apparently including Israel and Syria -- to respect Lebanon's independence and territorial integrity. The State Department said it was communicating with Toon about his remarks on intervention and also in the same speech his expression of regret over the anti-Zionist statements made by Egyptian President Anwar Sadat in Washington. State Department spokesman Robert Anderson said "We do not feel there is at present a likelihood of outside intervention" in Lebanon.
