ALL ABOUT
U.S.Y.

Last Monday at our meeting, we were very busy discussing our Tupperware Sale. Yes, Jr. United Synagogue Youth is selling Tupperware.

Order forms and booklets were passed out. Beverly Chamine, whose daughter, Michelle, is in our group, is the Tupperware representative sponsoring the sale, which will be held in the Jack Entratter Social Hall of Temple Beth Sholom, November 16, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. If you wish to make a purchase but cannot attend, call any U.S.Y. member, like myself at 457-9145, and I'll be happy to take your order. Support your Jr. U.S.Y. which will receive the proceeds of the sale.

The "Face to Face" convention for Jr. U.S.Y.ers only will be held the weekend of November 14 at Big Bear Lake. Unfortunately none of our members can attend because the applications came too late. But we wish all the other Jr. U.S.Y.ers who do go a lot of fun.

Don't forget our two big events coming up, on November 22, the Chanukkah Party from 8 to 10 p.m., and our December 8 Talent Show. Rehearsals start November 11.

The Senior U.S.Y. had a progressive dinner, which I was told, turned out well with loads of fun.

See you at our next Jr. U.S.Y. meeting at Beth Sholom November 10 at 8 p.m.

GREG GOUSSAK'S
LAS VEGAS

This past week has had a lot of enjoyment for all 3 chapters here in Las Vegas. I would first like to re-cap the happenings of last week and then go into the future.

On Sunday the 26th of October, Jack Entratter AZA held a snatch breakfast. This went very well as far as I have heard. Also last Saturday the 25th Las Vegas AZA and BBG had a Bar-B-Que out at Boulder Beach camp grounds. I attended this and it was one of the best times I have ever had in AZA.

The really big event for the chapters was the Regional Board meeting the 31st of October through the 2nd of November. This was held in Prescott, Arizona at Camp Teva. These boards will be very special, because they will include Leadership Training.

Leadership Training is one of the most important programs. Unfortunately not everybody can afford to go to the International Leadership Training Conference or International Kallah, the 2 biggest events offered by the B'nai Brith Youth Organization held at Camp B'nai B'rith in Starlight, Pennsylvania. Also coming up for Jack Entratter AZA is a sleep over at the gym on November 8th. And several socials.

Las Vegas BBG is planning a Leadership Training Institute, an event which is for different kinds of events and where new members finish their training. This will be for all 3 chapters and will be held on the 16, 17 and 18th of January, 1976. Las Vegas AZA will be having socials, but nothing is definite.

Until next week when I will tell all about the regional board meeting, this is Greg Goussak.
