

JEWISH NEWS BRIEFS

PARIS (WNS) -- The Palestine Liberation Organization has been given permission by the French government to open a permanent information and liaison office in Paris.

RIO DE JANEIRO (WNS) -- A delegation representing the Brazilian Jewish Confederation will go to Brasilia to protest to top government officials the charge by Foreign Minister Azeredo da Silveira that the Jewish community was unpatriotic because it preferred Israel to Brazil. Da Silveira attacked Brazilian Jews for their vigorous condemnation of the resolution in the United Nations General Assembly's Third Committee, which Brazil supported, equating Zionism with racism.

NEW YORK (WNS) -- Mayor Abraham Beame's refusal to greet visiting Egyptian President Anwar Sadat has been attacked as "racist actions" by the Amsterdam News, the nation's largest circulation Black newspaper.

WASHINGTON (WNS) -- President Ford, in a political speech in San Francisco, pledged that the Administration will fight the resolution linking Zionism and racism when it comes up before the United Nations General Assembly.

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- The Jewish National Fund will develop a recreation park at Gamla the site of a Jewish fortress northeast of the Sea of Galilee during the Roman wars, to commemorate Israeli soldiers who fell on the Golan Heights.

NEW YORK (WNS) -- Arab oil producers, the American oil industry and other pro-Arab elements in the United States are financing a $45 million Arab propaganda campaign in the United States against Israel, Zionism and Jews, the B'nai B'rith Anti-Defamation League disclosed.

NEW YORK (WNS) -- The necessity for "a real day-to-day dialogue, a day-to-day working relationship" between Israel and diaspora Jews, especially American Jews, was stressed by Haifa Mayor Yosef Almogi at a luncheon meeting of the American Jewish Congress here.

LONDON (WNS) -- Egyptian President Anwar Sadat's anti-Jewish statements during his visit to the United States were denounced by Leon Dulzin, acting chairman of the Jewish Agency Executive, and Dr. Meir Rossene, legal advisor to Israel's Foreign Ministry.

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- The strike that grounded El Al ended with an agreement between the airline management, Histadrut and the workshop employees whose walkout forced the company to suspend operations for 19 days.

WASHINGTON (WNS) -- The State Department has been accused by three accredited Israeli correspondents of cooperating with Egyptian officials in hampering their coverage of Egyptian President Anwar Sadat's visit to Washington and other cities.

PARIS (WNS) -- Mordechai Drori, Israel's Charge d'Affaires, has delivered to the French Foreign Ministry Israel's official protest of France's decision to permit the Palestine Liberation Organization to open an information and liaison office in Paris.

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- Iraq has hanged a 39-year-old Dutch-born Jew who was working as a medical nurse with the Kurds in northern Iraq as an "Israeli spy." It was learned from his relatives in Israel.

EILAT (WNS) -- Transportation Minister Gad Yaacobi and other officials were on hand to greet the Greek freighter Olympos when it arrived here after sailing through the Suez Canal.

NEW YORK (WNS) -- Rep. Bella Abzug (D.NY) and two Jewish leaders have charged that President Ford's refusal to help New York City in its financial crisis could threaten the city's Jewish poor, working people and middle class as well as have a negative impact on Jews throughout the United States.
