VOLUNTEERS NEEDED TO TEACH ENGLISH

By Ova G. Elms

The Las Vegas area has a number of foreign born residents who have great difficulty communicating in our language. Several volunteer tutors are needed to help them learn English.

A tutor training workshop for English as a second language has been planned by the Las Vegas Literacy Council for November 14-16 at 1701 E. Oakey Blvd.

(across from Temple Beth Shalom). Students will be given certificates upon completion of the course.

The Laubach method, developed by the late Dr. Frank C. Laubach 45 years ago, will be used for the instruction. This method has been so effective in teaching language skills that it is now in use in 47 states and 103 countries.

Meetings

In the past three months, we've met with more than 50 different groups of customers.

At these sessions, one of our energy conservation specialists explains how to save money on the power bill by conserving energy in the home. Then, one of our company's officers answers any and every question the people in attendance may have.

About rates, power supply, meter reading, billing practices, construction plans, profits, rate increases — you name it.

Want to get a group of friends and neighbors together for such a meeting? How about the church, business or social club you belong to? No group is too small; none is too large. These are worthwhile sessions. Call 385-5753 to make arrangements.
