

OF THE STARS

WORLD OF COUNTRY MUSIC TO LANDMARK

THE PLAINSMEN, CO-STARRING WITH LEROY VAN DYKE IN "COUNTRY MUSIC" AT LANDMARK.

many appearances with Roy Clark and are regulars on the "Proud Country" syndicated radio and television show.

Also returning with Van Dyke for this second go-round is former "Miss Arkansas" Susan Haney, a lovely lass whose first big break came when she was contacted to fill in for Diana Trask, who was appearing with George Gobel in Omaha. For the last two years, she has toured the nation with The LeRoy Van Dyke Show. "The Fifth Avenue Country Boy" Ben Sanders, is featured singer/humorist, held over for his second consecutive edition of CMUSA after creating some-kind of attention with his easy-listening, humor.

SHECKY GREENE, BARBARA EDEN AT MGM GRAND

Shecky Greene, the wild and improvisational comic genius, returns to the Celebrity Room stage of the MGM Grand Hotel for a two week stand with Barbara Eden, November 19.

Shecky is an experience to behold, a dervish of activity filling the entire stage with his energy and comedy. The one-hour plus that Shecky Greene entertains on stage is a multimedia event in which he sings, dances, mimics, tells stories and spews one-liners to the ultimate satisfaction of everyone.

Barbara Eden is a delightful co-star, to say the very least. No longer the illusory genie of "I Dream of Jeannie" fame, Ms. Eden is a beautiful, animated, graceful and thoroughly musical cabaret entertainer.

This engagement marks the third time Shecky Greene and Barbara Eden have appeared together at the Grand. The duo has proven to be one of the strongest marquee combinations among the resort's considerable collection of superstars.

Dean Martin opens December 3 for one week. Greene returns Christmas Day

IN THE CONGO SHOWROOM

TOTIE FIELDS

BERT CONN

RESERVATIONS 735-4242
SAHARA

5TH EDITION
MUSIC USA
COUNTRY

OPENS TONIGHT IN THE JUBILEE ROOM

LeRoy Van Dyke

SUZAN HANEY
THE PLAINSMEN

8 PM DINNER SHOW FROM 2002
MIDNIGHT COCKTAIL SHOW FROM 2020

Landmark
A HUGHES HOTEL • RESERVATIONS 733-1110