

AJC CALLS RESOLUTION ARROGANT

The UN resolution equating Zionism with racism was described by Rabbi Arthur Hertzberg, president of the American Jewish Congress, as "preposterous as it is arrogant."

"Nations guilty of the most bizarre and bloodthirsty acts of bigotry and race hatred have the gall to sponsor and support this proposal," Rabbi Hertzberg said, adding: "Racism is as alien to Zionism as democracy is to many of the proponents of the Resolution."

In his statement, Rabbi Hertzberg declared:

"The action of the General Assembly is another predictable step in the campaign being waged by some member states of the United Nations against the State of Israel. The only thing new is that this campaign now has been expanded to include an assault upon the interests of the Jewish people generally."

"Until the last few years these elements in the United Nations disguised their basic anti-Jewish orientation by directing their venom against the State of Israel and its alleged misdeeds. Now, however, have they come more boldly into the open. They not only repeatedly attack Israel on familiar and discredited grounds; they also attack the fundamental aspirations of the Jewish people embodied within the Zionist movement."

"We have no doubt as to the motives of this measure. We have no doubt either that most of the European economic community as well as some Latin American, Caribbean and African nations opposed this outlandish proposal.

"Nonetheless, majority decisions of the United Nations on matters affecting Israel and Jewish interests are by now mechanical and automatic. They are so empty of meaning and so ludicrous as to be a proper occasion for farce rather than for any reaction so serious as anger."

"We can only be sad that these events continue to disfigure the character and what remains of the good name of the United Nations. We can only be sad that an apparently irreversible tropism toward moral bankruptcy within the UN cannot be abated. We can only be sad, but given the present configuration of the UN we certainly cannot be surprised."

U.J.A. DENOUNCES ANTI-ZIONIST RESOLUTION

NEW YORK -- "The United Nations anti-Zionism resolution is a moral outrage against humanity," Frank R. Lautenberg, UJA General Chairman said after the dramatic General Assembly vote. Those who support this resolution are bigots in mind and heart. "Today we are all 'Zionists,' Lautenberg added. "This obscene act is a threat not only to every Jew but to all who care for the future of decency, integrity and democracy."

The UJA General Chairman announced that UJA is proclaiming December 10-13 as a Conference of Solidarity with the people of Israel in New York.

The UJA National Conference -- with Shimon Peres, Chaim Herzog, Simcha Dinitz, Leon Dulzin and others -- "will be the American Jewish community's answer to the UN anti-Zionism resolution -- and our affirmation in the belief in the dignity of worth of human life," said Lautenberg.

a forum for Anti-Semitic propaganda, offering encouragement to the racists of the world, its effectiveness as a peaceful agency has ceased to exist," charged Rabbi Schindler.

The head of the Reform Jewish congregational body in the U.S. and Canada representing 715 synagogues and 1.1 million congregants, said, "the statement represents not just a slander against the State of Israel, but it's also libel against the Jewish people." He feared that "the sensitive conditions in the Middle East which have produced two disengagement agreements between Israel and Egypt might well be in serious danger. I pray that this will not occur."

Rabbi Schindler believed that the Arab states and many Third World nations "have just made a fateful and ominous decision to take the road of rhetoric, politicide and bigotry within the United Nations rather than the road of needed economic and social change which can come only through consensus, cooperation and decency."
