

ARABS SEEK CREATION OF "ARAFAT STATE"

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- The anti-Zionist resolution and the two pro-Palestine Liberation Organization resolutions adopted by the United Nations General Assembly were aimed at replacing Israel with an "Arafat State," Premier Yitzhak Rabin told the Knesset.

"Their aim is to ostracize Israel. In order to prepare the political conditions required for the intensification of their struggle against the very existence of Israel... to prepare the ground for the establishment of an Arafat State instead of Israel and upon her ruins," Rabin declared. Rabin called upon world Jewry to "stand up against the plot being woven against us -- as Zionism, Judaism, the State of Israel and the Jewish people are one and the same thing." The Israeli Foreign Ministry described the anti-Zionist resolution as "a page torn from the annals of Nazism," but declared that "Zionism will continue to survive and flourish long after the UN resolutions have sunken into oblivion."

American Ambassador Malcolm Toon said that UN had adopted resolutions "that all mankind will regret" but said these "resolutions will have no bearing on the relations between Israel and the United States."

School children and their parents demonstrated throughout the country against the resolution and children distributed "I am a Zionist" badges printed by the government information service. Jerusalem and several other cities have changed streets named for the UN to "Zionism Street."

In Chicago, former Defense Minister Moshe Dayan said "I don't think it was a black day for Jews or Zionists," and declared that "the future of Israel will be decided on the farms, fields, and if necessary, on the battlefields of Israel; the fate of Zionism will be decided in the hearts of the Jewish people."

Seven members of the Knesset on an official visit to Washington indicated that Israel would not withdraw from the UN. Meanwhile Rabin and Leon Dulzin, acting chairman of the Jewish Agency and World Zionist Organization Executives, announced that an emergency meeting of 100 Jewish leaders, 30 of them from the U.S., will convene in Jerusalem at the end of the month to plan means of countering the anti-Zionist and anti-Jewish attack launched at the UN.
