

93 WARSAW GHETTO GIRLS REFUSED TO SUBMIT TO NAZIS, COMMITTED SUICIDE

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- Tubia Friedman, head of the war crimes documentation center in Haifa, has revealed the 93 Jewish girls aged 14-22 who were abducted from their Beth Yaacov school in the Warsaw Ghetto in 1942 to a brothel for SS officers committed suicide rather than submit to their captors. Details of the tragedy were revealed in a last will and testament written by one of the girls, 17-year-old Chaye Friedman, who said that she and all her companions hoped only that someone would recite kaddish for them.

The letter, written in Yiddish, was found in Poland recently and sent to the Haifa center. Friedman has sent it to West Germany where it will be used as evidence in the trial of Ludwig Haan, an ex-Nazi who was in charge of the Warsaw Ghetto. The letter came to Haifa via New York where it was read at a memorial meeting of survivors of the Jewish community of Radom, Poland. "I do not know when or whom this letter will reach someone sometime," Chaya Friedman wrote. "But if it reaches anyone, we shall not be alive. Please recite kaddish for 93 clean, innocent Jewish girls who decided to take their lives in their own hands and not be mutilated and dishonored by the dirty SS officers." According to the letter, the girls committed suicide by poison.
