

YEDIAT ISRAEL PROGRAM IN BICENTENNIAL

NEW YORK (WUP) -- In the observance of the American Bicentennial the Sixth Annual Yediat Israel Program will include study materials dealing with the role of America in the story of Palestine-Israel during the last 200 years, including the establishment of the State of Israel.

The Yediat Israel Program, sponsored by the World Zionist Organization's Department of Education and Culture and the Youth and Education Department of the JNF, aims to encourage youth to learn the story of the Land of Israel and the establishment of the State and to strengthen the ties of American youth to Israel and the Jewish people everywhere.

The culmination of the year-round study will be the National Yediat Israel Examination, which is non-competitive but based on individual, class and home study by children and youth. The participants receive the AMI (Award of Merit of Israel) pins of gold, silver, and bronze based on scores achieved in the non-competitive examination.

Dr. Abraham P. Gannes, Director of the WZO- Department of Education and Culture, reported that an increasing num-

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- Israel's population as of Rosh Hashanah was 3,451,000 persons, of which 2,921,000 are Jews and 530,000 are non-

Jews. The Central Bureau of Statistics in announcing the figures said the overall population growth during 1974-75 was 2.1 percent with the Jewish population increasing by 1.8 percent (51,000 people) and the non-Jewish population by 3.7 percent (19,000 Moslems, Christians and Druze.)

ber of schools over the years are participating in this project and in May, 1975, more than 5,000 young people took the examination and received the AMI Awards. In addition to Dr. Gannes, Dr. Leon L. Wolfe, Director of the Education Department of the JNF, served as Advisor. Dr. Samuel J. Citron is Chairman and Mr. Philip Gorodetzer Co-ordinator.

Still the most meaningful program in town...
