Charles Rosenberg of Las Vegas takes exception to newscaster Howard Smith parroting the cry of the Birch Society, to wit: "Get U.S. out of the U.N. and get the U.N. out of the U.S." Rosenberg wants to kick Uganda's Amin and the newly-rich Arab states out of U.N. (Ed. Note: So do we.)

Opening night for Teenagers Youth Canteen has been changed to Saturday, December 27.

Delightful Hanukkah greeting jingle, probably the first on any radio station, was played all during the holiday on KRAM in Las Vegas. Real nice tribute to Jewish Community.

Bob (Smokey) Slover, who supervises all the bulk mailing at the Main Post Office, surprised all his friends and relatives by putting the Shalom Stamp on all his X-mas cards. He's Catholic and that's spreading Ecuminism on a local level. Good man!

Now comes Richard Sargent with a series of innovations for the creative set, including a Literary Agency, lectures on how to sell writings, an Arts & Crafts Center, featuring the art of L.V. Show Girls. He's located in the Carriage Trade Center of Commercial Center, 732-4486.

COUNT BASIE has been signed by Sahara Entertainment Vice President Lenny Martin to join Tony Bennett for a special two-week Congo Room engagement May 20-June 2 next year.

The Las Vegas Recreation Department Civic Symphony Holiday Concert will be held December 14th, 2:00 P.M. at the Reed Whipple Cultural Arts Center, 821 Las Vegas Boulevard North. $1.00 donation.

A seven-week-long registration for spring semester classes started Monday, December 8 at UNLV.

A 25-hour course designed to teach beginners to ski and intermediate skiers to become more skillful will be offered from December 15 to December 19 by UNLV.

Cake decorating classes at the Teen Center, 6200 Elton Avenue begin the week of January 5th. 386-6369.

The music department at UNLV is holding auditions by appointment for a piano accompanist to work with ballet classes at the university.

"Ongoing Investigations: one fact and three theories," an exhibit of photographs by David Levinthal, will be in the UNLV Art Gallery through December 19.

Once again we remind you of the cash saving days at Red Carpet Car Wash on East Charleston. Ladies Day on Tuesday, Men's Day on Wednesday and Thursday is Senior Citizens Day. Take advantage.

Simondo Mantini, an Italian Jew who was brought up in Israel, has an adorable Home Decor and Personal Accessories shop in Commercial Center, where you find pretty things at the right price. He has Alaskan Jade and African Ivory Jewish Star pendants at $8.00 and those light-as-a-feather "Mal" Shirts at $7.50. Swell bargains.

The United Way of Southern Nevada, with a goal of $1,385,056, reported 104% collected, amounting to $1,440,652. Makes us all proud.

Nevada American Revolution Bicentennial Commission will meet in the County Commission Chambers, December 12 at 9 A.M.

Union Plaza Sports Director Johnny Quinn has come up with a lulu for horse handicappers. For $3 you select winners of the 4th thru 9th races for a minimum of $5,000. If you do not guess all six winners there's a daily jackpot.

The Union Plaza's hilarious "Norman, Is That You?" moves into its eleventh week of record-breaking attendance.

The newly formed Nevada Chamber Ensemble will present free the Las Vegas premiere of two great masterpieces of chamber music in a special concert at 2 p.m. Sunday, December 21 in the Humanities Auditorium at UNLV.

Governor Mike O'Callaghan has proclaimed the week of February 17 - 22 as American College Theatre Festival Week in honor of the Pacific South Regional finals of the American College Theatre Festival at UNLV.

"Superstar Show" hosted by Sig Sakowicz each Saturday on Channel 8 (KLAS-TV), 3-3:30 p.m. will present a "Salute to Maurice Chevalier" who passed away January 2, 1972. Part I will be viewed January 3 and Part II will be viewed January 10. Many show biz personalities and friends of the late French entertainer will be participating.

"Man of the Year" award to Al Bramlet at B'nai B'rith 5th Annual Banquet.

"Flakes," a unique KLVX, Channel 10, ski film produced by December 18 at 7:30

AZA IN LAS VEGAS

I want to apologize for not having an article last week. I went out of town and forgot to get it in before I left.

Now, to get down to BBYO business. Jack Entratter AZA is really getting ready with things for convention. Starting this Wednesday we are having Convention Preps. If anyone is interested in what goes on, we write and learn songs and cheers. We also go through the different functions of Regional Convention.

Las Vegas AZA held their bi-annual orientation at the clubhouse at Garden Park Townhouses. Las Vegas BBG are doing the same things. Convention is the biggest event of the year that AZA and BBG have together. The only other main event of the year is Conclave which is held for just AZA and BBG, not together.

I would like to go through some of the things that happen at Convention. There are business meetings for both AZA and BBG. One of the highlights of Convention is Mid-State where the AZA Regional godol and BBG Regional N'siah give a state of the first part of the term. For fun, the AZA chapters compete in a basketball contest and the girls have their dance contest. As for contests, at Convention there are 2 speech contests which are AZA oratory, and BBG story telling. Before Convention several contests take place. There is a deadline and they are sent in for judging. Some of these are: Photography, Scrapbook, Creative Writing. Trophies are awarded for first place, and certificates for second and third. Winning contestants go to the District finals.

Regional Convention has had problems, because of costs being so high. Members just didn't register. To bring the cost down the decision was made to house this event with other members instead of having it at the Adams Hotel.

In the future, you can look for dances, movies, sport events against the B'nai B'rith Mens lodge. We need membership so if anyone is interested, please give us a call. You can call Harmon at 451-6647 for AZA or Sherri Samberg at 451-9501 for BBG. Why don't you come on down to the Temple on a Wednesday night at 8:00? I'll be looking for you.
