

JERRY NAYLOR DEBUTS AT LANDMARK IN BARBARA FAIRCHILD SHOW

JERRY

Barbara Fairchild, "I Just Love Being whose latest release, A Woman" is presently on its way to the top of the charts, proves nightly that she does indeed, as she comes across to her audience as a real lady -- full of warmth, humor, spirit and talent. Currently headlining the Landmark's Jubilee Room, the little gal with the big, big voice returns for this her second edition of "Country Music U.S.A."

Making his first appearance with the hotel's country/western musical presentation is Jerry Naylor, a country music convert who at one time worked as front man with the pop group The Crickets. The crossover has been rewarding for the handsome performer, as his first pure-country release "Is That All There Is To A Honky Tonk" has achieved a great amount of success. Donning another cap, Naylor also hosts the popular syndicated radio program "Continental Country." Back for his third engagement is well-known, many-friended comic Jerry Collins -- a wit that never fails to win a response from even the most petulant patron. Magic-fingered banjoist Skip DeVol rounds out the revue with a set of tunes utilizing the five-string blue grass banjo and the four-string ragtime, making it most evident why he has been brought back for his sixth time around.
