

KREISKY ATTACKS NAZI HUNTER SIMON WIESENTHAL

VIENNA (WNS) -- Chancellor Bruno Kreisky strongly defended Friedrich Peter, head of the right-wing Freedom Party, who was accused last week by Simon Wiesenthal of having been a member of the First SS Infantry Brigade in World War II which executed 10,513 people, including 8,350 Jews in the Soviet Union in 1942.

Kreisky also assailed Wiesenthal's war crimes documentation center here as "a political mafia that works against Austria's interests." He stated that "Wiesenthal's re-valuation was mainly directed at me. He is known for not being too exact with the truth and for using tricks. In this case, it is a politician (Peter) who is being murdered. Wiesenthal told reporters that he would sue the Chancellor for his statements and disclosed that he has received more than 100 threats against his life and 10 bomb threats soon after he made his charges against Peter on Austrian television.

Peter was reelected to the Austrian Parliament a week ago. His party won 10 of the 163 seats. Kreisky's Social Democratic Party retained its absolute majority. There had been speculation, however, that had the Socialists failed to retain their majority, Kreisky was prepared to form a coalition with the Freedom Party, elevating Peter to the office of Vice-Chancellor. Peter had admitted membership in the SS brigade but rejected charges that he had ever participated in murders or persecution. Wiesenthal himself conceded that there was no evidence that Peter had ever personally executed anyone.

N.Y. CONGRESSMAN'S EFFORTS FREES USSR JEW

WASHINGTON -- U.S. Rep. Mario Biaggi (D. N. Y.) said he was "deeply thankful" to receive a telegram from Uri Podriachik, a Soviet Jew for which he obtained a permanent exit visa from the Soviet Union.

The text of the telegram said:

"I am in Vienna on my way to Israel a free man. Only your answer to my late mother's call has penetrated the Kremlin Walls. Forever Grateful. Signed Uri Podriachik."

Biaggi said, "When I received word that the visa was granted I was extremely relieved. However, it was not until I received this telegram that I was sure that Uri Podriachik would be able to join his father in Israel. We must thank God that at last he is free to rejoin his family. I am only saddened that his mother did not live to see her son once more."

He added, "I hope this is a sign of a new Soviet policy to be more yielding on the granting of exit visas to those who request them. It will go a long way to improving U.S. - Soviet relations."

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- Former Communications Minister Aharon Yariv and Justice Minister Haim Zadok returned from separate visits to the United States with encouraging reports that Israel stood a good chance of receiving all of most of the military aid it has requested.

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- With the increasing public concern about violence as a result of the protection racket in Israel's largest cities, Premier Yitzhak Rabin has decided to become personally involved in eliminating the crime.
