TRIP AROUND THE WORLD

DICK MCINNES

It'll be terribly hard to beat STEVE ALLEN & JAYNE MEADOWS in the party giving sweepstakes of 1976. It was a multi-themed party, red, white and blue decorations for the Bicentennial, a gorgeous Christmas tree still standing for a festive holiday theme, a huge white flower pot to be autographed by the guests for Steve's birthday (December 26) and a Comedy Tonight theme because most of the guests were the funniest men and women in the business.... BOB HOPE & his beautiful wife, DOLORES (first time I'd ever met her and she's a really nice lady) who just came over from a DEAN MARTIN roast... JACK OAKIE & his VICKI, Jack wearing the St. Louis Cardinal uniform that RON FAIRLEY sent him (every time Ron changes teams, he has a uniform made for Oakie) and getting most of the big laughs.... GROUCHO MARX & ERIN O'BRIEN... BOB NEWHART... BILL DAILEY... HARVEY KORMAN... JACK CARTER & ROXANNE back together again for a while.... FRENCHIE ALLEN saying MARTY was in New York doing a commercial for a new hair shampoo... EDIE ADAMS & PETE CANDOLI bemoaning the fact that there is no place in Los Angeles where they can do their nightclub act. I suggested renting the Coconut Grove and putting on a one night only appearance and bringing back some glamour to Hollywood. Hope they do it.... PENNY MARSHALL happy over her new series, which premieres next month... GEORGE GOBEL... TOM POSTON, LOUIS NYE & BILL DANA all from the old Steve Allen stock company... BEA ARTHUR dropping her "Maude" image and becoming Vera Charles again and having a ball.... JEAN STAPLETON who told me her only appearance at hubby Bill's Totem Pole

E. H. Milligan, General Manager of Summa Corporation's Landmark Hotel, announced that the Landmark, through World Associates of Las Vegas, in conjunction with KLAS TV has obtained foreign language instructional gaming video tapes in Japanese, Spanish and German, with French and Italian tapes presently on order. The purpose of these video tapes is to give the novice gambler a simple briefing on the mysteries of craps, "21" and the very popular baccarat. "In the past, so many of our foreign guests were limited to slot play," said Milligan. "Now when a group checks in, we can invite them to view the videotape. We hope it will help them feel a little more confident about trying some of our other games. As far as we know, we are the first hotel in Las Vegas to present this service in this manner for these important people." As an added feature for both the foreign speaking guest and the English-speaking guest, the film is available for viewing on the hotel's closed circuit TV system on Channel 6 of the TV receiver. "With this new innovation," he said, "we feel we are taking a giant step toward making Las Vegas a truly international city, where people from any part of the world can come and receive the vital information that will make their stay that much more enjoyable." Due to the Landmark's aggressive foresight in the use of this excellent instructional vehicle, the other Summa hotels are expected to institute the service within the next few months. SUPPORT YOUR LAS VEGAS ISRAELITE NOW IN 12TH YEAR.

Playhouse will be in NOEL COWARD's "Hay Fever"... CARROLL O'CONNOR & ROB REINER making SALLY STRUTHERS the only member of "All in the Family" not accounted for... producers NORMAN LEAR, JENNINGS LANG & IRVING ALLEN... ALICE COOPER digging all the comedians and asking all if they knew where he could get a copy of OLSON & JOHNSON's film "Hellzapoppin"... STEVE LAWRENCE & EYDIE GORME, ecstatic over their GERSHWIN special getting an Emmy nod and admitting that it took a lot of fighting to get the network to let them do that special their way. They deserve not only the nomination but the Emmy for a special that really was SPECIAL. No, there will be no album from the show, the network said no one would be interested. Really??? ALAN KING who told me about his teaching a class in comedy at the New School in New York City. Professor King, no less... FOSTER BROOKS acting sober and he's funny any way with his daughter and STEVE CARLSON, from daytime's "The Young and the Restless" who's writing a book called "Heaven." It's a novel taking place in heaven... JOE BOLOGNA & RENEE TAYLOR... RED BUTTONS doing a terrific takeoff on CAGNEY... JAN MURRAY... MACLEAN STEVENSON... SID CAESAR being very low keyed even when Bea Arthur told him he was one of the funniest men in the world.... DICK & DOLLY MARTIN with Dolly's parents from England.

JAYNE, the perfect hostess, who was everywhere in a lovely 20's type green floral chiffon told me sister AUDREY wouldn't come to the party because she had gained 20 pounds in Hawaii over the holidays, STEVE who told us that he didn't intend to be as informal as he was but guests started to arrive before he had changed his clothes and he never had a chance later and their son BILL who was taking photos all made everyone feel completely at home and as a result made their shindig one of the most memorable evenings that I've ever spent and the over 100 guests who attended all echo my sentiments. You know, if a bomb had dropped in Encino that night, there would have been no laughter in the world today.

ALLEN LUDDEN & BETTY WHITE whom I told should be readying an Emmy speech for her terribly funny Sue Anne on the MARY TYLER MOORE SHOW. She blushed and said she didn't think she would win one but I know better.

Put a lot of laughter into your world this week.
