

MAJOR JEWISH ORGS. TO "REASSESS" MEXICO

NEW YORK (WNS) -- The Conference of Presidents of Major American Jewish Organizations has announced its plans to "reassess" its policy on Mexico because of "an encouraging series of actions recently taken by the government of Mexico in its relationship with the Jewish people."

While the statement did not say what these actions were it was believed to refer to the Mexican government's decision to absent itself from two votes by UN specialized agencies on anti-Zionism resolutions. Another such action was understood to be negotiations between Mexico and Israel for landing rights for El Al in Mexico.

In another action, the Presidents Conference elected Rabbi Alexander M. Schindler, president of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, as its new chairman. The first leader of Reform Judaism to head the coalition of 32 national and secular religious Jewish organizations, Schindler succeeds Rabbi Israel Miller, who served two terms as chairman.
