AZA IN LAS VEGAS

Both AZA and BBG chapters are alive and kicking although we are having a membership problem. We really need the support the community can give and we need it now.

Jack Entratter AZA has a full calendar until March. Some of the things that we are doing are: A tour through City Hall, Go-cart racing at a track a bike ride to Red Rock Canyon, a new members workshop and more. Las Vegas AZA has the Queen Esther Ball.

Las Vegas BBG had a good event last week, which was a 6 fold weekend. It turned out well with people from Phoenix coming up to Las Vegas. Another one should be done next year.

Now, for the big thing. The Fourth Annual Queen Esther Purim Ball. It is coming up on March 20, 1976 and we need help. Right now we've made about One-Tenth of what we had last year. This money is used for sending members to conventions and leadership training conferences. It also lets us do some of the things that youth needs to stay out of trouble. If you can help please call me at 458-3674. It is vital that you, the Jewish Community, support AZA and BBG.

We also need a 3 or 4 piece rock band at a very small cost. Our budget is limited and we are trying to pull off a good show this year, please call if you can help in any way.

The Akeph Zadik Sleph depends on membership. DO WHAT YOU CAN. THANK YOU VERY MUCH.

ALL ABOUT

U.S.Y.

Jr. United Synagogue Youth has prepared a far-sighted schedule of meetings and events which should keep us hopping through April. Our next meeting takes place on January 26th, followed by one on February 2nd, when we will complete plans for the Ice Skating membership drive on February 22nd. In between we'll have our Board meeting on the 9th of February.

Our March 1st meeting and subsequent Board session on March 8th will be concerned with the Purim Carnival on March 14th.

Then on March 15th, the regular meeting will formulate plans for the trip on March 26th to Temple Ner Tamid in Van Nuys, California, where the annual KINUS (convention) for U.S.Y. Far West Region will be held. We'll attend Services, there will be discussion groups, and, of course, the farewell evening dinner. We look forward to a fantastic time.

The meeting on March 29th will be devoted to what happened at the KINUS and also the preparations necessary for the Fund Raising movie on April 4th. At the April 9th meeting, we will count the money raised by the movie and determine the best method to put it to use.

Come and join up now and don't forget. All meetings start at 8 o'clock at Temple Beth Sholom for members. The Board meetings are at 7:30.

We look forward to new and old members participating and enjoying themselves this new 1976 year.
