ISRAEL VERY CONCERNED WITH LEBANON

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- Israel is closely watching the situation in Lebanon.

The Israeli forces are on alert but military officials have refused to comment on overseas press reports that the Israeli army was concentrating its forces on the northern border. Israeli officials have reported that the terrorist organizations have taken over areas in southern Lebanon abandoned by the Lebanese army. In the Lebanese strife itself armored units of the Palestine Liberation Army have crossed over from Syria and have taken control of strategic areas in Lebanon. A Syrian delegation is in Beirut trying to negotiate a ceasefire between the warring Christian and Moslem factions in Lebanon.

In Washington, the State Department said it supports a "political accommodation" that will "preserve the security" of all elements in Lebanon. But the Department denied reports that it had outside country. In Jerusalem, government officials said the warning was aimed at Syria since Kissinger knew no such action need be feared from Israel. Defense Minister Shimon Peres, however, said that Israel would take defensive action if Syrian troops invaded Lebanon.

been in contact with the Palestine Liberation Organization on the crisis saying that it was in touch with "governments" concerned. Earlier, Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger warned against "any unilateral action" by an

SOME BARTENDERS ARE BABIES

Almost every tourist who comes to Las Vegas has a drink now and then, and the bartender's attitude is part of the visitor's vacation. Some bartenders are babies. They pout and sulk when pouring a drink and act as though their nap had been interrupted. Las Vegas is the fastest growing tourist city in the world, and every one of us is in the tourist business. A drink tastes a lot better when the man who mixes it pours it with a smile.

Drinking is for grownups . . . so is the Las Vegas tourist business.
