RABIN GAINED 'PRACTICAL RESULTS' IN MEETINGS WITH U.S. LEADERS

BRIAN JAY STEINBERG BAR MITZVAH

Brian Jay Steinberg, son of Dr. and Mrs. Leon H. Steinberg, will be called to the Torah and become a Bar Mitzvah during services at Temple Beth Sholom on Saturday morning, February 14, 1976.

Rabbi Philip Shnairson, spiritual leader of the Temple, will officiate and conduct the services, which commence at 9:00 A.M. Cantor Joseph Kohn will chant the liturgy. The parents of the Bar Mitzvah will host the congregation to a Kiddush in the Entratter Social Hall immediately after services.

BRIAN

WASHINGTON ENCOURAGES RABIN

NEW YORK (WNS) -- Premier Yitzhak Rabin said he has achieved "practical results" in his talks with President Ford and members of the Administration and Congress in Washington.

"I came encouraged from my meetings in Washington," he told 1500 local Jewish community leaders attending a United Jewish Appeal - Federation of Jewish Philanthropies Joint Campaign dinner here. "I found there understanding and readiness" by the Administration and Congress to continue to support Israel and the cause of peace in the Middle East. He said he also found a willingness to provide Israel with financial aid to meet its military needs.

Later speaking to some 300 Jewish leaders from across the country at a briefing sponsored by the Conference of Presidents of Major American Jewish Organizations, Rabin said that while Israel did not get all that it had asked for, his experience has been that it takes several steps "and we get what we want in the long run." Rabin also stressed that there is no difference between the U.S. and Israel on the question of the Palestine Liberation Organization and of a Palestinian state. He said that as a result of his talks he believes that the U.S. prefers that the Palestinian issue be settled in negotiations between Israel and Jordan.

In his 15 - minute talk to the UJA-FJP dinner, Rabin dwelt on the "lessons" of the Lebanese conflict. He said the civil war there

Newsman Suggests Lawbreak

When Valley Times columnist Dick Odessky advocated breaking the laws of the land by suggesting police squad cars be parked in front of Las Vegas massage parlors to discourage business, he violated one of the fundamental functions of the free American press -- to safeguard the public against over-zealous officials, who take the law in their own hands.

In addition, with the local crime rate going over 1000 - a - month, and Sheriff Ralph Lamb seeking an additional 98 lawmen to cope with the rising menace, Odessky's view is positively asinine in the matter of priorities for law enforcement. But this is not the point. The main issue is the disconsolation of a newspaperman injecting his own slant seeking to circumvent the law as it stands, to force people to do as he would like against their own wishes.

It has always been our contention that each of us, including editorial commentators, has every right to his opinions and his acts, providing they are legal and do not breach upon others. We do not believe in any form, type or manner of censorship. While we personally conform to certain accepted rules of procedure, dress and personal habits, in no way would we point a finger at a fellow-man with contrary inhibitions.

Odessky feels otherwise. He says, Los Angeles cops, who are HAMPERED by the same type of laws which allow massage operators to thrive in Las Vegas, have found a way to make life miserable for the owners. Dick suggests Vegas police use the same tactics.

Here we have an interesting new twist on the philosophy of law enforcement, laws that HAMPER policemen. We always thought the sole, main and only purpose of a policeman was to uphold and enforce the laws, not look to circumvent them. We never heard of a law that HAMPERS policemen. Apparently, the only HAMPERING being committed is against blue noses.

Odessky does not favor massage parlors. Neither do we. If they should be disallowed by law, you'll never hear a peep of protest out of us. But we will protest to the high heavens against anyone who wants to clamp his own narrow, selfish, egocentricities on the rights of others.

It is somewhat paradoxical that Odessky, who made a living for years as publicity man for the Stardust Lido show, one of the most outstanding, nudi, bare-breast offerings on the

MORE AID FOR ISRAEL DUE TO FISCAL CHANGE

WASH. (WNS) -- An increase of 25 percent in the U.S. foreign aid program for the current fiscal year to take into account the transitional quarter between the present and next fiscal year has been approved by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

This means Israel will get an additional $56 million.

The federal government is changing its bookkeeping procedures to start the fiscal year on October 1 instead of the present July 1.

Meanwhile Sen. Clifford Case (R.NJ) has introduced a bill to "put some shackles" on the sale of conventional arms by U.S. manufacturers by giving Congress and the Administration the power to veto such sales. Case said 15 transactions worth more than $25 million were handled by commercial manufacturers and dealers in 1975 including a complete "Hawk" missile system for Saudi Arabia for $68 million.

Case and Sens. Hubert H. Humphrey (D. Minn.) and Jacob Javits (R. NY) have also introduced an amendment that would terminate military equipment sales or training if American citizens are barred from participation in the agreement because of religion, race, or national origin.
