DONORS URGED TO ENLIST OTHERS TO DONATE

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- Major donors were urged to get other potential donors to give to Israel, by S. Y. Kreutner, director of the Karen Hayesod.

Speaking to the United Israel Appeal, Karen Hayesod mission, Kreutner said that each donor should approach 10 to 15 others during a year. He also urged that more emphasis be placed on middle givers, those who contribute $3,000 to $6,000.

Zionist Organization, a mission member asked why some Israelis left Israel. "For the same reason that you are not immigrating to Israel," he replied. However, Almogi said he favored the establishment of a top level committee to study the motives behind the wave of yerida (departure from Israel.)

itories. The compromise, accepted by the 2200 Arab students resident on campus, will allow them to serve "first aid shifts" instead of guard duty but also requires them to check "sites which will be determined ahead of time, to guard university property and warn of the danger to the welfare of the students."
