PERES DISCOUNTS INTERIM TALKS WITH JORDAN

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- While Israeli Premier Yitzhak Rabin has been urging in Washington that Israeli-Jordanian talks be the next step in the Middle East peace negotiating process, Defense Minister Shimon Peres has indicated that he sees no need for them.

For all practical purposes the situation that interim talks with Jordan would achieve already exist, Peres said in a broadcast on the Army Radio Station. He said the borders with Jordan are quiet, the Jordan River bridges are open and the tone of relations with Jordan is polite.

Meanwhile Peres said he will discuss with Rabin when the Premier returns to Israel a statement by a "senior source" in Rabin's party in Washington that Israel's weapons purchase list drawn up by the Defense Ministry for submission to the U.S. government was inflated and dishonored Israel. Peres said that whatever his Ministry did could stand on its own merits. Several newspapers have criticized the remark made in Washington both for its timing and for the place it was made.

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- The parties in Premier Yitzhak Rabin's coalition government rallied behind him to debate a Likud motion of no-confidence in the government by a 63-34 vote.

Haim Landau, a leader of Likud's Herut faction introduced the motion on the grounds that Rabin's remarks in the U.S. that Israel's weapons list was sloppy, inflated, and reflected no honor on Israel, had harmed Israel and demonstrated that the government was badly split and could not function properly.

Rabin acknowledged that he was the "senior source" who made the critical remarks to Israeli newsmen in Washington told the Knesset that "it was certainly not my intention" to criticize Defense Minister Shimon Peres. He said he wanted to explain to Israeli correspondents the complexity involved in submitting Israel's weapons requests to the U.S. and why a list presented earlier had to be revised. He said the revisions were caused by soaring prices in the U.S.; "changes of priorities" in American planning, and opposition in Washington to certain items on the list which threatened to prejudice Israel's case for the immediate supply of other items. Rabin praised Peres and his military and civilian aides for their work on the original and revised lists and stressed that he

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

February 2, 1976

My warmest greetings to the U.S. delegates who are attending the Second World Conference on Soviet Jewry.

In our Bicentennial year all Americans are re-dedicating themselves to the principles of human rights on which their nation was founded. Our people have long sought to promote respect for fundamental human rights, including the right of emigration. We adhere to the principles contained in the Declaration of Human Rights both in appropriate international forums and in our exchanges with other governments.

It is in this spirit that I wish you every success in your deliberations.

PRESIDENT FORD'S MESSAGE TO THE SECOND WORLD CONFERENCE ON SOVIET JEWRY WHICH WAS HELD IN BRUSSELS, BELGIUM, FEBRUARY 17-19, SPONSORED BY THE CONFERENCE OF PRESIDENTS OF MAJOR AMERICAN JEWISH ORGANIZATIONS, THE NATIONAL CONFERENCE ON SOVIET JEWRY AND OTHER JEWISH ORGANIZATIONS IN OTHER COUNTRIES.

Greenspun Slurs Jew

The bleeding hearts in the Jewish community, who lamented our honest criticism of Hank Greenspun, should re-assess their feelings now that he saw fit, for his own selfish purpose and personal gain, to viciously castigate a reputable Jewish lawyer, Sam Lionel.

It should prove to those who frowned upon our revealing Greenspun's disgusting, true nature, that he will stop at nothing, stoop to any depth, annihilate a fellow Jew, to gain his own end. It also proves there are good Jews and bad Jews, just as there are in every denomination. Our treatment of those who are enemies of society is, and always will be, the same regardless of faith.

Lionel was the target of Greenspun's nastiest, most hate-ridden and spiteful, malicious diatribe. It was totally uncalled for, out of place, and far out of perspective of the matter at hand.

Here is proof positive that Lionel is one of the most renowned and respected attorney's in the State of Nevada. When former Governor Grant Sawyer and former Chief Justice of the Supreme Court Jon Collins entered private practice they separately sought and joined as law partners with Sam. The firm, Lionel, Sawyer and Collins, handles many major clients, including M.G.M., Grand Hotel.

Greenspun called all three of these outstanding citizens "hired guns" and "assassins."

Since the only law governing general statements of newspapermen are those of decency and morality, we once again call upon the Clark County Bar Association to meet and pass a resolution on Greenspun going beyond fair comment and the bounds of propriety. It did just that in the matter of District Judge Howard Babcock, back in 1972.

(The Babcock Resolution is reprinted in an accompanying article).

In addition to the vile language he used, Greenspun violated every concept of honest journalism by adroitly commenting on matters before the court in which he was personally involved. He has so flagrantly abused this ethic in the past, his readers practically accept it as commonplace among honest newspapermen. We hasten to state this is not true. Greenspun is the sole publisher in all of America, to our knowledge, who violates the principle and brings dishonor and disrepute to the entire Fourth Estate.

When Greenspun attempted to justify his abusive, stinking remarks by stating "I normally
