CONGRESS RESOLVES SOLIDARITY WITH BRUSSELS

WASH. (WNS) -- Sens. Clifford Case (R, NJ) and Henry M. Jackson (D, Wash) and Rep. James Scheuer (D, NY) have introduced concurrent resolutions in the Senate and House urging Congress to "express the solidarity of the American people with the efforts to enlarge human freedom in the Second Brussels Conference" on Soviet Jewry.

The three sponsors sent a letter to all members of Congress saying that the Brussels Conference is a signal to the Kremlin "that the civilized world expects the Soviet Union to abide by all the international resolutions and declarations of human rights to which it has subscribed" including the Helsinki Declaration and the UN Declaration of Human Rights. The resolution notes that the struggle for Soviet Jewish emigration has continued in the face of severe repression and on the eve of the Brussels Conference there is marked increase in the "intimidation and persecution of Soviet Jews who seek to emigrate" and a "new and widespread campaign of anti-Semitism" within the Soviet Union.

In another development it was reported that 13 prominent U.S. Christians will attend the conference and issue a "Call to Conscience" demanding that Soviet authorities provide full human rights to Soviet Jews including the right to emigrate. The delegation will represent the National Interreligious Task Force on Soviet Jewry, a group founded in 1972 and made up of Roman Catholics, Protestants, Evangelicals, Eastern Orthodox and Jews.

Meanwhile, in Jerusalem, Moshe Rivlin, director general of the Jewish Agency reported that the Arab states were pressuring the Belgian government to cancel the conference. Belgium has rejected the pressure which was applied by Iraq which claimed it was acting for all the Arab states, according to Rivlin. In Brussels, the Belgian Foreign Ministry said that country has traditionally permitted "all conferences as long as they do not create a public disturbance or are contrary to public morals."

WASHINGTON (WNS) -- Elliot Richardson's replacement of Rogers Morton as Secretary of Commerce doesn't mean any change in the Department of Commerce's attitude toward the Arab boycott, according to a Department spokesman. The Stevenson-Williams Bill now being considered before the Senate would require public disclosure of all boycott requests to American firms and would penalize companies that comply with the boycott.
