

MOSCOW PRESS CONFERENCE ON JEWS A PLOY

BRUSSELS (WNS) - The press conference in Moscow featuring seven Jewish emigres who had returned from Israel was called by the organizers of the Second World Conference on Soviet Jewry "a transparent propaganda device that will deceive neither the Jews of the USSR nor the millions of Christians around the world who support the Soviet Jewish struggle."

David Susskind, chairman of the conference secretariat noted that the parliamentary assembly of the Council of Europe recently pointed out that only 45 of the more than 100,000 Soviet Jews who immigrated to Israel since 1970 returned and since most of the 45 were used by the Soviet government for propaganda purposes "it might be supposed that these people were from the outset, immigrants 'with a mission'."

The press conference in Moscow was organized by the Soviet Foreign Ministry and Novosti a feature press agency. Some of the Jews read from prepared statements and said Israel was a racist state. Vsevolod N. Sofinsky, chief of the Foreign Ministry's press department, asserted that 90 percent of Soviet Jews abroad wanted to return to the USSR.

But Susskind declared: "The problem does lie in the unwillingness of the Jews to emigrate but rather in the Kremlin's refusal to let Jews out and in its harassment of Jews who apply to leave." He said there was a backlog of about 160,000 Jews who had begun the emigration process.
