

ENTERTAINMENT TRIP AROUND THE WORLD

DICK MCINNES

TRIPPING AROUND.....BURT REYNOLDS got a little fed up with PETER BOGDANOVICH's new protegee in the film "Nickelodeon" and took a walk last week to cool off and stayed away for a couple of days. Seems Bogdanovich is practically giving JANE HITCHCOCK line for line readings and holding up the works. Speaking of Burt, isn't one of his new flames LISA MORDENTE, actress daughter of CHITA RIVERA?.....New Yorkers will be singing, "She's Back on Broadway" on April 19 when SHIRLEY MACLAINE plays the Palace with her revue, "Gypsy in My Soul." Shirley, in case you don't remember, got her big break when she replaced the late CAROL HANEY in "Pajama Game" when Carol broke a leg. As in the movies, HAL WALLIS just happened to be in the audience that night and Shirley became a star.....TONY ORLANDO bopped in from Las Vegas to play himself as a Grammy presenter in the BARBRA STREISAND/KRIS KRISTOFFERSON starrer, "A Star is Born."....."The Avengers" is coming back after a six year hiatus. PATRICK MACNEE recreates his role as John Steed and JOANNA LUMLEY will take over the HONOR BLACKMAN/DIANA RIGG/LINDA THORSEN sidekick role.....KEVIN DOBSEN, Sgt. Crocker on "Kojak" just did a pilot called "Stranded" which is sort of a dramatic "Gilligan's Island." A group of people are stranded following a plane crash. Dobsen was smart enough to insert in his contract that if it didn't sell, he'd still go back to Kojak which by the way has been renewed for its fourth season. TELLY SAVALAS will spend

EUROPEAN CHRISTIANS DONATE TO HADASSAH

JERUSALEM -- In these dark days, when Zionism and racism are equated by the enemies of Israel, and old friends cast curious votes at the UN, it is heartening to find that some Christian communities in Europe continue to show their devotion to Israel and to Hadassah.

The Rev. G. A. Zijderveld, of Middelburg, Holland, brought $29,000 to Hadassah for its Burns unit after the Yom Kippur War and continues to raise money by passing the plate at Sunday Services in about 100 Dutch communities. These communities still wish to show their sympathy and understanding for Israel, knowing that the collections go to the rehabilitation of Israeli soldiers and others in the Holy Land.

A Christian Fellowship in London devotes considerable his hiatus making "The Merchant of Death." Not only will he co-star, he will co-direct, co-write the script and co-produce. Does he get half a lollipop too?.....

DARLENE CONLEY, one of the town's best actresses, is off to New York to start rehearsals for role in "The Baker's Wife" a new musical which will open out here. Darlene is very excited over working with TOPOL, Mazeltov, Darlene....The American Cancer Society has given a commendation to "The Young and the Restless" for their fine treatment of mastectomies. Jennifer Brooks (played by DOROTHY GREEN) had the operation on the show and has been followed through the follow up treatments and is now counselling other women on the show. It was handled beautifully. JANICE LYNDE who plays her daughter Leslie is shooting a pilot for a series called "Roxy" about an Armenian girl struggling to make it on Broadway. No, "That Girl" was about a Lebanese girl, wasn't it? Anyway, Janice is so super talented, I hope it works.

MOVIE TRIPPING.....Speaking of super talented ladies, GOLDIE HAWN is absolutely sensational in her new film, "The Duchess and the Dirtwater Fox" (20th). I have always loved her but in this movie she really becomes the actress. Not one Hawn mannerism. She is wonderful. GEORGE SEGAL is another favorite of mine but if he doesn't stop playing GEORGE BURNS with those damn cigars, he's going to lose a fan. His talent and charm are tops but in this and the last couple of ventures, he seems to be almost a caricature of himself. But he is good also in most of the film and their double talk scene is a hoot. The picture is just a titch too long but if you really want to enjoy yourself and have a laugh, go see it. Don't let the title mislead you, it is a fun film.
