Don (Dirty Dingus) Shaw, one of the many of our "Gentile" friends, reminds us of the Optimist creed back about 1920 -- "As you ramble on thru life, Brother, whatever be your goal; Keep your eye upon the doughnut, and not upon the Hole." He speaks of the wonderful things so many service organizations are doing for their fellow man. (We add, Amen).

A line from Leon Berger in Stroudsburg, Penn., telling us the sad news that his dear wife, Rosie, passed away. Rosie was that delightful woman who had devoted most of her life to other people. We'll miss her periodic visits to Las Vegas. Jack & Bea Tell.

BONNIE TELL'S
ALL ABOUT
U.S.Y.

Extra! Extra! Read all about it... I became a Bat Mitzvah last Friday. I want to thank all who came and for the lovely presents I received. I had a lot of family come from out of town and some which I think should be recognized. My Uncle Jay and Aunt Alice along with my cousin, Robin, my great Grandmother Bessie Goldstein, and my Uncle Jerry, Aunt Marilyn and Marty and Jill.

Also...the T.N.T. convention is starting today, will last until Sunday. This is an award winning convention and we look forward to it, so I will tell you all about it when I get back from Van Nuys, California.

Since I couldn't tell you last week how the U.S.Y. annual Purim Carnival went, I'll tell you this week. Well, it was fun as ever not only for the workers but the kids loved the booths, food, prizes, raffles and the haunted house. We thank everyone for their support.

The U.S.Y. inter-faith Passover Seder is April 6, 6:30 to 8 P.M. Admission is $1.50. R.S.V.P. to Tammy Gelbart or Lori Chenin.

Well, I've got to go catch the bus for the T.N.T. convention so I'll tell you how it went next week.

Last but not least I must comment on the beautiful efforts of Jackie's Deli in Commercial Center who catered the food so appetizingly and deliciously. I couldn't have asked for a more delightful finish to a beautiful occasion. Shalom.

GREG GOUSSAK'S
IN LAS VEGAS

My weekly report on AZA in Las Vegas. The 1976 Queen Esther Ball went very successfully on March 20th. I don't have the exact amount made, but it should be over $600.00 each chapter.

Jack Entratter AZA right now is in the process of starting over with the new term. It usually takes a good month to a month and a half to get rolling. The same thing with Las Vegas AZA and BBG. But on March 7th Jack Entratter AZA did have a bike ride to Red Rock Canyon. Future events for Entratter are a basketball marathon over the spring vacation holiday, and also for Vegas AZA Mountain Region AZA's 1976 Conclave. At this event which is being held in Las Vegas the new officers are elected for a full years' term. Other things are done at this like a maccabid (Jewish Olympics). This is something new for us and should turn out well. Workshops, business meetings, a storytelling contest and more will happen on this weekend of April 30 - May 2nd.

Las Vegas BBG will be attending their conclave which is being held in Tempe and Scottsdale, Arizona, on April 23-25. It is almost exactly like guys conclave, but separate.

The AZA chapters in Las Vegas need your help. We need members to help raise our membership. Jack Entratter AZA and Las Vegas AZA and BBG are doing fine, but not good enough. With Jack Entratter AZA celebrating its 2nd anniversary this month we have grown to about 21 paid members with 17-19 active. That is pretty good compared to the other young chapter in Mountain Region AZA named Sy Clark AZA. It took them about 5 years to get to that standard of active members. If any one has questions on how to join please call Ken Goussak for Entratter at 458-3674, Marc Kline for Vegas at 735-3700 and Janet Cohan for BBG at 735-4492.

Until next week I want to thank you all for your support in the Queen Esther Ball. And if you missed it you will have to wait til next year.
