from the Persian Gulf, pipeline officials said.

They said that while Rumania was a large customer of the pipeline its withdrawal would not be a knock-out blow. Informed sources said the Rumanian action is due to Bucharest's decision to buy oil from an Arab state at a cheaper rate than it has been paying Iran.

The Arab state, however, insisted that the oil should not be shipped through the Israeli pipeline, but through the Suez Canal.

CONGRESS 4-MONTH VIGIL ON SOVIET JEWRY

WASH. (WNS) -- Rep. Joshua Eilberg (D. Pa.) chairman of the House subcommittee on immigration, and Rep. Elizabeth Holtzman (D.N.Y.) a subcommittee member, led off a four-month vigil in the House to focus national attention on the plight of Soviet Jewish families forcibly separated from their families.

Fifty Congressmen are participating in the vigil which will consist of three speeches each week on behalf of specific families. The congressmen stress the purpose of the vigil is to have the Soviet Union keep the commitment it made at the Helsinki Conference to allow families to be reunited.
