"Shabbat Troupe" made up of approximately 20 members of United Synagogue Youth, has been bringing creative Shabbat experiences to many Southland synagogues. These active and concerned Jewish youth from the Los Angeles area travel to different conservative temples presenting and participating in creative services and discussions.

The "Troupeniks" spend a complete Shabbat, from Friday afternoon through Saturday night with the U.S.Y.ers from the host synagogue and share, teach and participate in a "real" Shabbat experience.

Gail Gorelick of Valley Beth Israel, is the Shabbat Troupe director, and Aaron Rubenstein, also of Valley Beth Israel, is the U.S.Y. Shabbat Troupe chairman.
Temple Beth Sholom's annual U.S.Y. Interfaith Seder was last Tuesday and it was a lot of fun. Non-Jewish teenagers came along with us and had a delicious and traditional Seder. I think it was a terrific way to share our religious customs with other Faiths.
Happy Birthday, Mom.

Both AZA chapters are hard at work with their own little ideas and I should have some report on them by the next issue or two. We also are preparing to host the 1976 Mountain Region AZA Conclave. Like I have explained before this is where the new regional officers are elected. We also have workshops, athletics, and all around fun. If any young man is interested in this type of a project you can still join AZA. And if you hurry up and join one of the chapters you are still eligible to attend this conclave, but that will run out next week as the deadline for all registration on this event is next week. If anyone is interested please call one of the presidents. Either Marc Kline at 735-3700 or Ken Goussak at 458-3674.

The girls will be attending their conclave to be held in Scottsdale, Arizona on April 24th - 26th.

The races for the girls seem to be tough and Las Vegas could have a candidate, but more on that later.

Some events on the blackboard for both chapters are:

- 1) Marathan Basketball game.
- 2) Tour through City Hall.
- 3) A second challenge between Vegas and Entratter.
- 4) Sleepovers and
- 5) A surprise party for someone.

AZA chapters have several tricks like snatch breakfasts, and kidnap dinners. We also like to be normal at times and have progressive dinners, but no matter what we are always having fun. MEETINGS ARE WEDNESDAY EVENINGS AT 8 P.M. AT TEMPLE BETH SHOLOM.
