Comics clown a lot about Maitre D's and Captains having their hand out when you want a good table but lets tip our hats to the helping hand they are giving to a most worthy cause. The Maitre D's and Captains Association of Las Vegas just donated $1,500, the first of a perpetual fund, to the Helen J. Stewart School for Trainable Mentally Retarded Children. The money is earmarked for outings, picnics and field trips, not funded otherwise. Wanna help? Call Barry Brower at 735-5081.

BETH SHOLOM
(1600 East Oakey)

Friday Night 8:30
Sat. Morning 9:00

Dear Mr. Tell:

I was pleased to note in your March 26 issue, of the mazal tov due you for the Bat Mitzvah of your No. 1 granddaughter at Temple Beth Sholom.

The commitment that a young girl makes to Judaism today strengthens not only her local community, but also the entire Jewish world. We hope that all of the prayers that her grandparents, parents and friends have recited for her, will materialize in a world at peace. We hope that she will grow to maturity in good health and that she will always be a credit to America, to the Jewish people and to her parents, grandparents, and all who know her and love her.

I was particularly pleased to see the picture of your distinguished spiritual leader, Rabbi Philip Shnairson, on the front page of your paper. I have known Rabbi Shnairson for a long time and have always had a great admiration for him, as well as for his dear wife, Rabbi Shnairson was a member of the New York Board of Rabbis when he was in this area and has, as many of his colleagues under similar circumstances, retained his membership in this, the world's largest, representative rabbinic organization. Even though he is geographically distant from us, spiritually, he remains very close. When you next have the occasion to speak to him, kindly give him our warmest regards.

With best wishes for a joyous Passover
Sincerely yours,

Rabbi Harold H. Gordon
(Exec. Vice Pres. N.Y. Bd. of Rabbis)

AZA

IN

LAS VEGAS

Jack Entratter AZA started off the term with a superb event. They held a bowling event with Las Vegas BBG. It was at the Showboat Lanes. They have many, many events ahead like a surprise party for their advisors. It was in honor of BBYO's International advisor's month which was March. I feel that this is one of the best things the chapter could have done.

Las Vegas AZA is having problems. They need membership now as Entratter has 21 members and they are down to about 6-8 active. So if any guy is interested please call Marc Kline at 735-3700 as they need members more than the other chapter. They have some good ideas for programs, but need members to execute these ideas. AZA can be the best thing in the world, but not if a chapter doesn't have members to have the fun with. And what does a Godol or a S'gan have to do with a chapter if they don't have a chapter to do it with??? Please give them a hand at their hour of need. The Queen Esther Ball was worth about $600 to each chapter after the final check is written. That should be done this Wednesday.

Las Vegas BBG attended MOUNTAIN REGION BBG's CONCLAVE IN TEMPE-DALE (Tempe and Scottsdale, Arizona) on April 9 - 11. From what I've heard it was great.

I heard they had about 3 members running for offices, but more on that next week. I also will have the results of any contests they win at this conclave. I certainly wish all of them lots of luck in whatever they do.

CONCLUSION: AZA AND BBG NEEDS THE SUPPORT OF THE COMMUNITY. IF YOU HAVE A SON OR DAUGHTER WHO IS BETWEEN 13 AND 18 PLEASE CALL KEN GOUSSAK AT 458-3674. MARC KLINE AT 735-3700, OR JANET COHAN 735-4492. WITHOUT YOU WHERE? WOULD WE BE. YOU HELPED US WITH OUR QUEEN ESTHER BALL. WE NEED MEMBERS NOW. DON'T LET US DOWN.
