

NEED SMALL BUSINESS LOAN, SEE RHODINE

Mitchell P. Kobelinski, Administrator of the Small Business Administration (SBS) has announced in Washington the reappointment of George Rhodine, of the Summa Corporation, as a member of the Las Vegas District Advisory Council of the SBA. Mr. Kobelinski said that Rhodine was again selected for council membership in recognition of his knowledge of and interest in problems of small business. As a member of the District Council, he will take part in the semi-annual meetings where the needs of the local small business community are discussed and the means by which SBA can most effectively meet these needs are considered. The Advisory Council also serves as a channel of information to local business and commercial interests regarding specific SBA programs and as an advisory body which makes recommendations concerning the SBA programs and keeps the District Director informed of current economic conditions within the Las Vegas District. A fringe benefit of reaching the status of senior citizen is being eligible for a Golden Age Passport.

Ed Rowland, Bureau of Land Management (BLM) Nevada state director, said all six district offices and the state office in Reno have a supply of these passes on hand. The Golden Age Passport is issued free of charge to persons reaching the age of 62 and is good for the lifetime of the applicant.

Rowland said the Golden Age Passport is often confused with the Golden Eagle Passport issued by other federal agencies. Basically, the Golden Eagle Passport is an entrance permit valid only for a calendar year. It costs $10 and can be purchased from most National Park Service installations and U.S. Forest Service offices. It does not cover any camping or other recreation use fees.

A Golden Age Passport affords the holder nearly the same entry privileges as the Golden Eagle Passport plus a 50 per cent discount on recreation use fees for designated recreational facilities and services.

Rowland said Golden Age Passports must be applied for in person. Proof of age, such as driver's license or birth certificate, must be presented. The free, lifetime, Golden Age Passports can be obtained by visiting any BLM, Forest Service or Park Service office. No passports are available from the Postal Service.

A husband and wife traveling together, either of whom has reached 62, only need one passport. However, if either plans on traveling alone and both are 62 or older, it is advantageous for both to obtain a Golden Age Passport since they are non-transferable, Rowland said.
