

DISPORA, THEME OF ISRAEL'S INDEPENDENCE DAY

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- "Israel and the Diaspora" is the theme of the celebration of Israel's 28th Independence Day.

"We have decided on this because we have learned that in the final analysis our fellow Jews abroad are our most loyal friends," Yehuda Ilan head of planning for the celebration, explained. The World Zionist Organization in its message declared that "the Zionist movement and all its affiliates stand firmly alongside the State of Israel as a full partner in its struggles and its heroic wars. We salute Israel's great deeds of immigration, absorption, agricultural settlements and the building of a new Jewish society founded on the eternal spiritual values of the people of Israel." The WZO noted that "Independence Day, 1976 comes in the midst of a campaign of wicked and unrestrained incitement against the State of Israel and the Zionist movement; this campaign is instigated by the dark forces of blind hatred, directed against the whole of the Jewish people, its past and its future. We shall fight this battle, convinced of the justice of our cause and of the validity of Zionism, proud of the movement for the liberation and the renewal of the Jewish people." The WZO also noted that "only 29 percent of the Jewish people live in Israel... aliya to Israel is the lifeblood to which it is dedicated above all."

In New York, Charlotte Jacobson, chairman of the WZO's American Section, said Israel is the "single viable democratic country in the entire Middle East." She noted that during its 28 years, Israel has withstood Arab aggression and has emerged victorious with its democratic institutions and liberties intact. Noting that American Jews "are fully aware of the difficulties Israel faces," Mr. Jacobson declared, "Now more than ever, we reaffirm our support of Israel and pledge ourselves to do the utmost to ensure her security and stability."

YOU HAVE ONLY 3 CHOICES

A good mechanic
A bad mechanic
Or no mechanic at all

And with watches, it's no different than with cars.

Our WYLER watches come from Switzerland where they believe in built-in quality. Not flash, not gimmicks. Just constant quality performance.

But if your WYLER ever needs servicing, you've got the best mechanic in town. We are recognized watch professionals—and all the genuine WYLER parts are right here.

So don't get taken. Like a fine car, a fine watch must come from a reliable dealer, who will give you honest value. Like cars, WYLERs come in a choice of models starting at only 39.95. All with written guarantees—the factory's and our own. As a matter of fact, we wear WYLER watches ourselves.
