FORD AGAIN REAFFIRMS SUPPORT FOR ISRAEL

WASH. (WNS) -- "There has not and will not be any erosion of American-Israeli friendship," President Ford told the some 1000 persons attending the 70th annual meeting of the American Jewish Committee.

"While America must and will pursue friendship with all nations, this will never be done at the expense of America's commitment to Israel," Ford also stressed that the United States "will remain the ultimate guarantor of Israel's freedom."

The President, who received four standing ovations, also indicated his Administration would continue to press Israel for withdrawal from the occupied territories. "We appreciate Israel's dilemma..." Ford said. "Israel is asked to relinquish territory -- a concrete and essentially irreversible step -- in return for basically intangible political measures," Ford declared, "but it is only willingness to dare the exchange of the tangible for the intangible that hostility can be ended and peace attained."

Ford said he supports foreign aid totaling $4.4 billion for Israel for the 1976 and 1977 fiscal years but not the additional $550 million for the transitional quarter between them.

UN INCAPABLE OF MAKING PEACE

NEW YORK (WUP) -- In a lengthy exposition, entitled "The Debasement of the UN" appearing in the current issue of Midstream, Harris Schoenberg -- the Deputy Director of UN Affairs of the B'nai B'rith International Council -- has charged that the world organization "is not only incapable of making peace and protecting human rights, but actually aggravates tensions and defends tyrranny."

Mr. Schoenberg notes that "it is sometimes argued that the UN merely reflects the international community; in reality it plays a more sinister role. Conflicts brought to the UN are not resolved -- they are dramatized and exacerbated," he maintains. "Instead of being, as its founders intended, the forum for international accommodation and cooperation in the political and the socio-economic spheres, the UN has become a world stage on which nations embarrass or attack rival nations."

"Propaganda ploys in place of constructive proposals and maneuvering for political advantage," he adds, "have become norms in a UN that not only provides a platform for states to act out their clashing national interests, but that also encourages and prolongs these clashes... The Middle East conflict is typical..."

"The Arabs have turned the UN into a lawless institution, hostage to their own whims and fancies, striking in the process, to quote the NGO's, 'a fatal blow at the national development of the United Nations jurisprudence marked

Reappointed

Harry C. Levy was reappointed as chairman of the board of commissioners of the Housing Authority of Las Vegas on his 25th anniversary of service to the board. The appointment was made by Mayor Bill Briare and the city commission. Levy has seen the board grow during his tenure from a modest beginning with the World War II housing project known as Kelso Turner to nearly 3,000 low income housing units by objectivity and integrity.' And they have corrupted the Specialized Agencies and functional programs, which represented at an earlier time the UN's unique contribution. The menace is real..."
