NEW YORK (WNS) -- Yehiel Leket, director of the Israel Aliya Center in North America, has announced that members of the Israeli-Diplomatic Corps and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in the United States and Canada, are offering their assistance in promoting aliya.

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- Leon Dulzin, treasurer of the World Zionist Organization, has told the members of the new Zionist Druze Circle that the WZO will consider including the Druze community in its activities. The Druze, a non-Moslem Arab group, have been serving in the Israeli army since the mid-1950s.

NEW YORK (WNS) -- The Federal Bureau of Prisons has agreed to provide Jewish inmates of federal prisons with kosher meat, poultry and fish, according to Sidney Kwestel, president of the National Jewish Commission on Law and Public Affairs.

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- Tuvia Friedman, head of the Nazi Documentation Center in Haifa, has urged the Israeli government and the Jewish Agency to provide official observers at all Nazi war crime trials, because the lack of such observers may be the reason for the light sentences or acquittals given by German and Austrian courts since they may have felt there was a lack of interest by the victims of the Nazis.

NEW YORK -- A two month pictorial exhibit, "CULTURAL PLURALISM -- America's Gift to Jewish History" will be presented by the TARBUTH FOUNDATION for the Advancement of Hebrew Culture, at the New York City Center, 131 West 55th Street beginning Tuesday evening, June 29th.
