

LERoy VAN DYKE, PAT BUTTRAM IN JUBILEE SHOWROOM AT LANDMARK

OF THE STARS

LERoy

As LeRoy Van Dyke sings it, "It's A Big Wide Wonderful World of Country Music" and it's comin' on strong in the Landmark's Jubilee Showroom. The dynamic superstar of the country circuit, who lit the fuse on the first of the hotel's c & w musical revues early last year, returns with his band The Auctioneers for the soaring 19th edition of the music form that is skyrocketing in popularity all over the world.

Pat Buttram, well remembered for his character portrayal of the lovable con artist "Mr. Haney" of television's "Green Acres" and as Gene Autry's sidekick in over 60 movies, has over the years gained recognition as a comedy actor, monologist, after-dinner wit and outstanding dramatic actor.

It is highly unlikely that there is any music form that Skip De Vol can't conform to the banjo. The handsome blonde picker has appeared in nearly every one of the Jubilee revues, Susan Haney, former with her singing, amenco guitar playing, sexy gowns, chatting in broken English talking about Cugat.

"Miss Atkins, Arkansas" has toured with the LeRoy Van Dyke Show for four years. The LeRoy Van Dyke Show is in through June 27, followed by The Oak Ridge Boys June 28 through July 18.

Critics have called the blonde bombshell a long stemmed nuclear bomb, an incendiary bomb with a thousand times more voltage than Brigitte Bardot and a giant firecracker of sex.

The Lewis - Charo show continues through Wednesday with the dinner show at 8 and cocktail performance at midnight.

Another blockbuster, Don Rickles, who launched his show business career at the Sahara, opens Thursday.

In the resort's Cas-bar Lounge, back in action are the popular Pinups 76, the Freddie Bell Show and the Imperials.

ISRAEL FEATURED IN UNION PLAZA FETE

A gala 16-day celebration is underway at the Union Plaza Hotel Casino to commemorate its fifth anniversary until Friday, July 2.

"The theme of the celebration will be 'Around The World with the Union Plaza.'"

A trip for two around the world will be the grand prize.

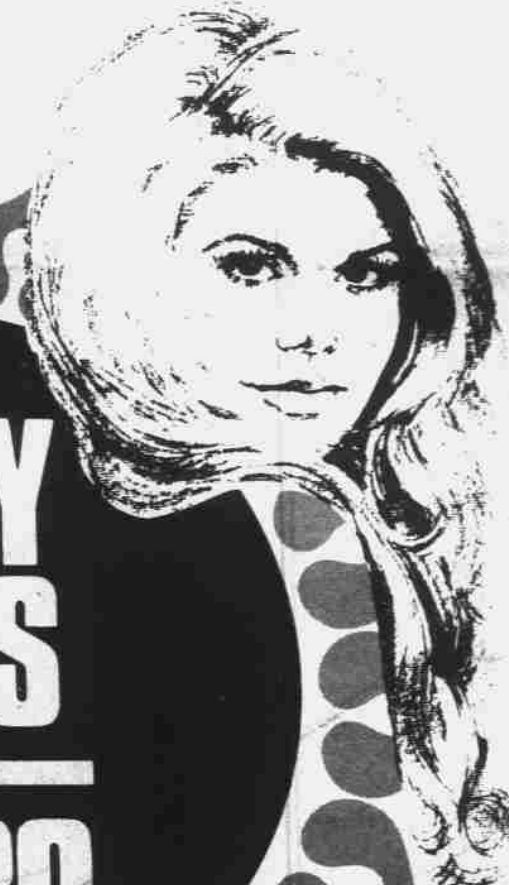

Featured countries for the celebration are Germany (June 16-18), Italy (June 20-22), Israel (June 23 - 25), Greece (June 27 - 29), Latin America (June 30 and July 1) and USA (July 2.)

and of course a calendar full of nightclub and theater dates. Rip is scheduled to return to Las Vegas later this summer as Ann-Margret's special guest star at the Hilton ("We're talking, talking" says Rip) and to be the premiere headliner when the new Stardust Lounge reopens.....Delightful KITTY KOVER, recently back from her guesting with WAYNE NEWTON at Harrah's Tahoe, starts rehearsals for her starring role in "ROAR OF THE GREASEPAINT, SMELL OF THE CROWD" (with Kitty in the Anthony Newley role) being readied as the opening of the JUDY BAYLEY SUMMER REPERTORY THEATER on July 1. "Roar" will costar and be directed by PHIL FORD. Also coming to the Bayley Theater this summer will be productions of "BUTTERFLIES ARE FREE" and "THE AUCTION TOMORROW". ROBERT N. BURGAN, is the managing director of the summer theater and director of the University of Nevada Drama Department. Tickets are now on sale for the season of three plays, at $10.00 from UNLV or call 739-3641 for reservations and more information.....PETULA CLARK & JOEL GREY co-star at the Riviera, July 8-21.....DON RICKLES makes his first Special Appearance, on loan from the Riviera, at the Sahara Hotel opening June 24 with gueststar VIC DAMONE.....JULIET PROWSE opens June 29 at the Desert Inn and will be the last attraction at the Crystal Room before that showroom closes for hotel constructions STRIP SHOWSTOPPER... LARRY STORCH back once more with Bobbie Gentry at the Frontier, is at his most hilarious when he does his famous African diplomat - who learned to speak English via short wave radio. The premise is as zany as Larry's all-stops-out one man performance playing the interviewer (Barbara Walters), the African chieftain, and all the sound effects.

MARQUEE MAGIC..... NEIL DIAMOND is "SOLD OUT" for his July 2-4 concerts at the new Aladdin Theater for the Performing Arts, CHICAGO, who'll be in concert at the Theater July 8-11, will be posting a sold out notice long before that date arrives. Tickets for "Chicago" are still available but getting scarce; by mail order from the Theater..... And if you really want to Plan Ahead, tickets for ELVIS PRESLEY's special ten day appearance at the Las Vegas Hilton, opening December 2, will go on sale on SEPTEMBER 6. Elvis will do only one concert show per night, two on Friday and Saturday..... SHECKY GREENE who'll be making his first appearance since his near fatal surgery accident a few months ago later this month in the east, returns to the MGM Grand Hotel, with special gueststar PAUL WILLIAMS, opening July 8..... Popular GABRIEL (Welcome Back, Kotter) KAPLAN who just ended a smash visit at the Riviera with NEIL SEDAKA, has been set to return with ANDY WILLIAMS, opening at Caesars Palace on July 8..... ANN-MARGRET who seems to have at least six big movies lined up back to back on her always busy schedule, is set for an August 17-September 6 stint at the Las Vegas Hilton.....

WEEKEND WANDERERS.....BOBBIE GENTRY at the Frontier with LARRY STORCH..... GINGER ROGERS at the Desert Inn..... SAMMY at Caesars..... "CASINO DE PARIS" at the Dunes featuring FREDDIE SAILES, THE STUPIDS, DAVID WRIGHT, GINNIE PALLONE, HEATHER VICTORSON, JIM HOGAN, JOAN PALETHORPE, STEVIE LaSPINA, ANNA SCHIAMI, LISETTE ZEENWEN, EVERETTE CHASE, THE DYMEKS, DAVID SHEPPARD, JENNIFER WEISS, DYANNA LIVINGSTON, ANITA BENTLEY, ENRICO MEDINI, DUKE MOLNER, PAUL KING, DICK POWELL, CONNIE KAY, and dozens more in the cast of more than 100 in Frederic Apcar's dazzling tribute to the Bicentennial..... TONY ORLANDO & DAWN at the Riviera..... LIBERACE at the Las Vegas Hilton.....

JERRY LEWIS

CHARO

DEL WEBBS HOTEL

SAHARA

DINNER SHOW: 8PM
COCKTAIL SHOW: MIDNIGHT

CONGO SHOWROOM
RESERVATIONS 735-4242