AZA
IN LAS VEGAS

As I will be leaving for the remainder of the summer next week I will call this my last column. I want to really thank the Tell's for the chance to do this and I hope they will allow me to pick up the articles in the fall. If not, it has been fun.

Las Vegas BBYO has another addition to its family. Another BBG chapter has been formed under the supervision of Mort Kirsch. They are so new that they don't even have a name yet. I would like to wish them all the luck in the world. I can tell them from experience of Jack Entratter they have the hardest year of their lives ahead of them. They also will have the greatest times of their lives forming a chapter. They make up the traditions. They start their own fraternities. It is something so special, they will never forget. Along with that their names will be on the chapter charter six months from time of the temporary charter. Keep up the good work, gals, and someday I can see a few of you attending the International BBYO Kallah and ILTC.

Jack Entratter AZA has a great summer ahead. They are holding another Kenratter Weekend with their brother chapter in Scottsdale, Arizona, in July. Also they are bringing in Sy Clark AZA, probably one of the best if not the best chapter in Mountain Region. They are coming up to try another honorary council like Kenratter. They also have many, many events in store for members along with the possibility of four new members to bring our total to 25.

Gentlemen, I have a challenge to you. By the time I return to Las Vegas from Starlight, Penn. I want 30 members paid and registered in the chapter.

We'll be seeing you in the Fall.
