WHERE WERE THE RABBIS?
Albert Einstein Hebrew School recently held its graduation ceremony at Temple Beth Sholom. Neither of our Rabbis were present at this important ceremony. Do they have more important things to do than looking after the education of our children? They should at least show up for the graduation ceremony, even though they studiously avoid the Albert Einstein Hebrew School the rest of the year.

GREG GOUSSAK'S AZA IN LAS VEGAS

My name is Ken Goussak. I will be writing because my brother, Greg, who usually writes this article is away at B'nai B'rith camp in Starlight, Pennsylvania for the summer. Last Wednesday, Las Vegas AZA had a Bar-B-Que swim party at vice president Kenny Wolf's house. I heard it was a great success. While the party was going on Entratter was having real business with my Mid-State. Many people attended mid-state, including 15 Entratter members, advisors, and a number of BBG'ers.

As I am writing this article a number of CCYO'ers are at Magic Mountain. They left Friday morning at 4:00 A.M., and went straight to Disneyland to spend the day. They stayed overnight in a motel, went to Magic Mountain, overnight in another motel and on to the beach.

I have not received any kind of report from any chapter but Entratter, but I know that the girls are starting on their annual fashion show, and they could use any type of help. They are putting together an ad book and they are looking for supporters.

Entratter is in the process of putting together a weekend with a chapter in Phoenix (Kenedy AZA). We had a similar event last year, and it was such a great success we decided to have another one in August.

Las Vegas attended the Regional June board meeting in Phoenix, Arizona, from June 15 - 17, and then took a chartered bus directly to Stockton, California, for the District 4 BBO convention Institute. At District 4 workshops and other activities were held including district election.

If you are a boy, or a girl, wishing to join one of these great organizations, please contact: Ken Goussak 458-3674 Godol of Entratter, Janet Cohen 735-4492, N'siah Vegas BBG, or Steve Katz of Vegas AZA at 735-0013.
