GREG GOUSSAK'S AZA IN LAS VEGAS

BY KEN GOUSSAK

This past week I was at Mountain Region's June board meeting and I forgot to send in an article from Phoenix. The California trip that I told you about came off with a bang. I didn't get to attend but everyone who went had a great time.

Entratter AZA is having a swim party progressive dinner Wednesday night. We will hold our first water polo game of the season, and when we get good enough we plan to play the champion team from Phoenix.

Vegas AZA is planning a big membership drive for the rest of the summer.

Las Vegas BBG is working real hard on their fashion show to be held in September.

Mountain Region's October board meeting is going to be held in Salt Lake City. It should be a lot of fun for everybody involved. This year every-so if you want some more information on this please write or call me.

For the rest of the term everything looks pretty good. Las Vegas council is planning an (LTI) Leadership Training Institute for one wants the convention in a hotel. We decided to put out an ad booklet to raise the extra money needed to hold the 1976 Mountain Region annual convention in a hotel. We need your help. I am in charge of the ad booklet for the Las Vegas area the month of August. And Entratter is planning a banana-athon and car wash to raise money for the International Service Fund.

If you are a boy or a girl interested in joining one of these great organizations please contact Ken Goussak 458-3674, Steve Katz 735-0013, or Janet Cohen 735-4492.
