hostages." However, Kissinger noted that it was difficult to establish a general rule. "Clearly, the attack on an airport is an unprecedented attack," he said, "but equally clear is that the hijacking of airliners, the holding of 100 innocent people for ransom in a situation where the host government, at a minimum, proved impotent...indicates that we face here a new international problem." He reiterated the American call for an international convention to curb aerial hijacking by refusing to allow hijacked planes to land or by automatically arresting hijackers who do land.

Daniel P. Moynihan, the former American Ambassador to the UN, has called on the U.S. government to boycott airports of countries like Uganda which assist and collaborate with terrorists. Rep. Bella Abzug (D, NY) has urged the U.S. to introduce a resolution in the Security Council calling for an investigation of the reported collusion between Ugandan President Idi Amin and the hijackers.

FATE OF ISRAELI LEFT IN UGANDA HOSPITAL?

LONDON (WNS) -- "Grave concern" has been expressed by the British government over the unknown fate of Mrs. Dora Bloch, one of the hostages on the hijacked Air France plane, who has disappeared from Mulagao Hospital in Uganda.

The 75-year old woman, who has both British and Israeli citizenship, was hospitalized shortly before the Israeli raid which freed 102 hostages from the plane held at Uganda's Entebbe Airport. Edward Rowlands, Minister of State at the Foreign Office, told Parliament that urgent inquiries made by the British Acting High Commissioner in Uganda have failed to elicit information as to the whereabouts of the woman. In Israel serious concern was expressed that she may have been harmed and may even be dead. Foreign press reports said that she was dragged from the hospital screaming by four "security men on Idi Amin's orders."

Israeli Chief Rabbi Shlomo Goren has sent appeals to the Pope, the World Council of Churches and UN

Secretary General Kurt Waldheim.

Mrs. Bloch, accompanied by one of her sons, Ilan Hartuv, an economist, was enroute to New York to attend the wedding of another son, when the Tel Aviv-to-Paris Air France airbus was hijacked shortly after it left Athens. She was taken to the Ugandan Hospital when she choked on food supplied the hostages. Her son was among the 102 hostages rescued by Israeli forces.

Rowlands told Parliament that a British official who visited Mrs. Bloch at the hospital was told she would be transferred to a hotel. When he returned to the hospital an hour later with food for the woman, he was not allowed through the main gate. Since then British officials have been told by Uganda authorities they have no knowledge of her whereabouts.

Meanwhile the four Israelis, killed in the rescue attempt were buried. A military funeral was held on Jerusalem's Mt. Herzl for Lt. Col. Jonathan Netanyahu, the 30-year old American-born Israeli soldier who was killed while commanding the assault party. He was the son of Prof. Ben Zion Netanyahu who teaches Judaic studies and Semitic languages at Cornell University in Ithaca, N.Y. Two of the hostages who were killed, Ida Borowitz, 56, and Jean Jacques Maimoni, 19, were buried in Netanya and Bat Yam, their respective homes. Pasco Cohen, 45, who died of his wounds in a hospital in Nairobi, Kenya, was buried in Hadera.
