COMIC JOEY BISHOP, CHARO EXPLODE AT DEL WEBB'S SAHARA

Every night is like New Year's Eve in Hotel Sahara's Congo Room with two of the greatest performers in the business sharing center stage at the Del Webb resort.

Back by popular demand -- and appearing only through next Wednesday -- are that son-of-a-gun comic Joey Bishop and the Barcelona Bombshell Charo.

It's extra good news for the hundreds of persons who were unable to see Charo during a recent engagement at the Webb resort due to capacity crowds in the showroom.

Bishop is funnier than ever. His ability to draw upon current events and put them into perspective continues to be the big reason for his long-time success.

CHARO

A true professional, in every sense of the word, Joey has an endless supply of material, mixing it with topical comments on everything from politics to boxing. And It's often that Bishop, supplying his own special words, sings memorable songs.

Charo (Mrs. Xavier Cugat) continues to show audiences why she has rocketed to stardom. Her singing is terrific. Her Flamenco guitar playing is sensational. And her broken English -- you have to hear to believe.

The Bishop - Charo show is being featured twice nightly 8 o'clock dinner and cocktails at midnight.

In the Sahara's Casbar Lounge, currently featured are the rockin', swingin' greats, the Imperials plus the long-time popular running nude show, Pinups 76.
